

OCR GCSE ECONOMICS 6 Marker Model Answers

1. Evaluate the importance of PED for consumers/producers.

E.g., Evaluate the importance of PED for consumers of Hotel Chocolat

Knowledge of PED is important to consumers of Hotel Chocolat due to price discrimination. This occurs when firms split their market by elasticity – charging more to those who have inelastic demand and less to those with elastic demand. Knowledge of this will allow consumers to avoid exploitation and make more efficient spending decisions. For example, consumers purchasing during festive seasons are likely to pay higher prices. This is because chocolate is seen as a necessity during those times, making their demand inelastic.

However, it depends on the number of substitutes available as the greater the number of substitutes the more elastic consumers' demand is, meaning they can obtain lower prices. It also depends on whether the consumer values brand loyalty and quality over higher prices as it makes inelastic demand less significant.

For some consumers, demand for chocolate is inelastic as it is a habit forming good. The government tends to tax goods with inelastic demand at higher rates as they are aware that most consumers are likely to continue buying similar quantities regardless of higher prices. This means consumers with inelastic demand will have to dedicate a higher proportion of their real income to paying tax.

In sum, knowledge of PED is important to consumers of Hotel Chocolat, however it depends on the income of the consumer. Consumers on higher incomes are less affected by higher than consumers on lower incomes.

Crew,Paul R. Kleindorfer,2012-12-06 Postal service has received considerably less attention in the economics literature than traditional public utilities Postal service is facing some very important challenges arising out of the increasingly high tech nature of postal service the entry of competition into the business and new attitudes on the part of government to postal service In the United Kingdom and Germany the increased interest in privatization and recognition of the benefits of competition are likely to have an impact on postal service These challenges mean that postal managers must learn new ways of doing business not just in successfully introducing new hardware and in new internal operating procedures but also in the development of new pricing and costing methodologies and in the introduction of new management information systems In order to deal with these new developments managers need a solid foundation in applied microeconomic theory as it relates to postal service This book encompasses the theoretical foundation for postal policy particularly with regard to pricing service quality and competitive issues Iranians in London Mahnaz

Sekechi, 2018-06-26 This book explores the psychosocial significance of loss and exclusion in the lives of many Iranian immigrants living in London since the Iranian revolution of 1979 It addresses the experiences of middle class Iranians who left Iran in both voluntary contexts immigration and in enforced contexts exile The author elucidates the experiences of ordinary middle class Iranians who chose to leave Iran given the socio politico cultural context of the changes wrought by the Islamic Republic in Iranian society Mahnaz Sekechi argues that losses of country liberty and security in Iran combined with varying degrees of social exclusion and downward mobility in London have led to an encapsulated sadness for many despite their capacity for creative living The book also demonstrates the value of psychosocial analysis in understanding dislocations in general and their effects on wellbeing
