Criminal Justice is an essential guide to the development and operation of the American criminal justice system. A leading scholar in the field and an experienced editor, Michael Tonry, has brought together a team of first-rate scholars to provide an authoritative and comprehensive overview and introduction to this crucial institution. Expertly organized, the various sections of the Handbook explore the American criminal justice system from a variety of perspectives, including its purposes, functions, problems, and priorities, and present analyses of police and policing, juvenile justice, prosecution and sentencing, and community and institutional corrections, making it a complete and unrivaled portrait of how America approaches crime and criminal justice and giving persuasive answers as to why and how it has developed to what it is today. Accessibly written for a wide audience, the Handbook serves as a definitive reference for scholars and a broad survey for students in criminology and criminal justice.

The NYPD's First Fifty Years BERNARD WHALEN, JON WHALEN, 2015-01-01 The New York Police Department is an iconic symbol of one of the world's most famous cities. The blue uniforms of the men and women who serve on the force have long stood for integrity and heroism in the work to serve and protect the city's residents. And yet, as in any large public organization, the NYPD has also suffered its share of corruption, political shenanigans, and questionable leadership. In The NYPD's First Fifty Years, Bernard Whalen himself, a long-serving NYPD lieutenant, and his father, Jon, consider the men and women who have contributed to the department's past, both positively and less so. Starting with the official formation of the NYPD in 1898, they examine the commissioners, politicians, and patrolmen who during the next fifty years left a lasting mark on history and on one another. In the process, they also explore the backroom dealings, the hidden history, and the relationships that set the scene for the modern NYPD that so proudly serves the city today.

The Cities We Need Gabrielle Bendiner-Viani, 2024-08-27 An expressive book of prose and photographs that reveals the powerful ways our everyday places support our shared belonging. Where would you take someone on a guided tour of your neighborhood? In The Cities We Need, photographer and urbanist Gabrielle Bendiner Viani introduces us to the complex political and eminently personable stories of residents who answered this question in Brooklyn, New York, and Oakland, California. Their universal stories, and Bendiner Viani's evocative images, illuminate what's at stake in our everyday places, from diners to churches to donut shops. In this culmination of two decades of research and art practice, Bendiner Viani intertwines the personal, historical, and photographic to present us with placework: the way that unassuming places foster a sense of belonging and, in fact, do the essential work of helping us become communities. In this unique book, Bendiner Viani makes visible how seemingly unimportant places can lay the foundation for a functional interconnected society so necessary for both public health and social justice The Cities We Need explores both what we gain in these spaces and what we risk losing as they are threatened by gentrification large scale development and most recently the COVID 19 pandemic Ultimately Bendiner Viani shows us how to understand ourselves as part of a shared society with a shared fate she shows us that everyday places can be the spaces of liberation in which we can build the cities we need The 9/11 Commission Report National Commission on Terrorist Attacks,2011-05-16 Nearly three thousand people died in the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 In Lower Manhattan on a field in Pennsylvania and along the banks of the Potomoc the United States suffered the single largest loss of life from an enemy attack on its soil In November 2002 the United States Congress and President George W Bush established by law the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States also known as the 9 11 Commission This independent bipartisan panel was directed to examine the facts and circumstances surrounding the September 11 attacks identify lessons learned and provide recommendations to safeguard against future acts of terrorism This volume is the authorized edition of the Commission s final report The 9/11 Commission Report National Commission on Terrorist Attacks upon the United States,2004 The only authorized edition of this document Also in Circulating Collection The 9/11 Commission Report Thomas R.
