

Good afternoon Distinguished guests, Graduates, Ladies and Gentlemen:

On behalf of my classmates, I would like to welcome everyone and thank all the family members and friends who are here today to recognize our graduation from the Oakland County Sheriff Corrections Academy.

I would like to thank Supervisor Bennington, Sargeant Schimmel and especially the many instructors that trained us throughout the academy.

To my classmates, I offer congratulations. We are Oakland County Sheriff Deputies.

As several of you already know, our lives will be changed as we carry this new title. From this point forward, we will be in the public eye like never before. Every decision we make and action we take will potentially be open to intense scrutiny. Recent events throughout our country have proved this and our instructors have impressed this upon us throughout the academy. We do not have the luxury of expecting respect just because we are law enforcement officers. We will have to work hard each and every day to earn that respect. Our words and actions must show everyone that we are looking out for their best interests. We must remember that law enforcement is a service profession. It is our responsibility to protect and serve, not only those inside our walls but those outside these walls as well. We must try our best to never take action based on emotion.

As Oakland County Sheriff Deputies, we are not only responsible for protecting the public and the inmates in our custody. We also have an obligation to each other much like brothers and sisters. We must take it upon ourselves to support and protect one another. Inside this department, we need to watch out for uniformed officers as well as our civilian staff. It is my hope that this support, respect and protection we offer one another here will have far reaching effects out into the communities we serve.

I do not know what brought each of you to the Oakland County Sheriff, or what each of you hopes to accomplish during your career in the department but I

Detroit Joe T. Darden, Richard W. Thomas, 2013-03-01 Episodes of racial conflict in Detroit form just one facet of the city s storied and legendary history and they have sometimes overshadowed the less widely known but equally important occurrence of interracial cooperation in seeking solutions to the city s problems The conflicts also present many opportunities to analyze learn from and interrogate the past in order to help lay the groundwork for a stronger more equitable future This astute and prudent history poses a number of critical questions Why and where have race riots occurred in Detroit How has the racial climate changed or remained the same since the riots What efforts have occurred since the riots to reduce racial inequality and conflicts and to build bridges across racial divides Unique among books on the subject Detroit pays special attention to post 1967 social and political developments in the city and expands upon the much explored black white dynamic to address the influx of more recent populations to Detroit Middle Eastern Americans Hispanic Americans and Asian Americans Crucially the book explores the role of place of residence spatial mobility and spatial inequality as key factors in determining access to opportunities such as housing education employment and other amenities both in the suburbs and in the city

In His Majesty's Secret Service Chris Murphy,2019-10-17 In His Majesty s Secret Service is the memoir of a career agent with the United States Secret Service Chris Murphy recounts a life nearly cut short by severe asthma His parents were told to prepare to lose their son in childhood God had other plans and Chris never lost the sense of gratitude and enthusiasm that comes with second chances It is to God s glory that he worked and succeeded The Secret Service raised him to leadership but he started public service in law enforcement as an Auburn Alabama policeman in 1978 Chris was involved in the full array of municipal police work including having to shoot an escaped felon As a Tennessee Bureau of Investigation agent he worked major felony cases including participation in the seizure of 1 200 pounds of 98 percent pure cocaine By God s grace he ended up arresting the kingpin and his accomplice without backup or adequate weaponry Bad guys should never bring their daughters to work In 1985 Chris joined the US Secret Service He worked federal criminal investigations including threats against the president and other protectees He also guarded every president from Ronald Reagan through George W Bush He protected vice presidents presidential candidates visiting foreign leaders and former presidents Chris traveled to over twenty different countries and most of the United States performing his duties Meeting President Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul within a two week period was exhilarating Conversely getting the second lady and her aging parent lost in France was demoralizing A healthy sense of humor and humility are needed in such extremes Fortunately Chris has both He taught terrorism hostage negotiation and protective intelligence in the Office of Training Rising to retire as the special agent in charge of Alabama and Mississippi Chris helped manage the events and consequences of September 11 2001 and Hurricane Katrina In 2006 Murphy s demonstrated leadership and innovation contributed to his postretirement appointment to Alabama governor Bob Riley s cabinet as director of public safety After completing Riley's mission Murphy was appointed to Mayor Todd Strange's cabinet bearing the same title over the police fire emergency communications and emergency management agencies He served seven years in Montgomery bringing his total public service to forty remarkable years His Secret Service encounters with history are unforgettable Chris's passion for ethics leadership and his Christian faith provided courage to make tough necessary decisions It has been a truly fascinating career

Violence Workers Prof. Martha K. Huggins, Mika Haritos-Fatouros, Philip G. Zimbardo, 2002-11-21 Of the twenty three Brazilian policemen interviewed in depth for this landmark study fourteen were direct perpetrators of torture and murder during the three decades that included the 1964-1985 military regime These violence workers and the other group of atrocity facilitators who had not or claimed they had not participated directly in the violence help answer questions that haunt today's world Why and how are ordinary men transformed into state torturers and murderers How do atrocity perpetrators explain and justify their violence What is the impact of their murderous deeds on them on their victims and on society What memories of their atrocities do they admit and which become public history

The Psychological Effects of Police Work Philip Bonifacio, 2013-11-21 SOME DISCLAIMERS It is somewhat unusual to begin a book by declaring what it is not but the topic of police behavior is so complex that it requires the writer to state as early as possible the limits of what he has written here to describe and explain a police officer's experience In order for the reader to get a clear idea of what areas of police behavior are to be described it is necessary to delineate those aspects of police behavior that are beyond the scope of this book First of all this book is about the psychological effects of police work on policemen male police officers Nearly all of the police officers with whom I have worked have been men so my impressions and opinions are based on the experiences of male police officers Consequently descriptions and explanations of the motivations anxieties psychological defenses and resultant behavior of police officers must be limited to policemen I believe that there are significant differences in the psychological effects of police work on men and women but this book does not address this issue
