Koji and Its Applications Shoichiro Nakamura,2018-10-03 The focus of this book is on how to make koji successfully and apply it to home brewing sake shochu miso mirin amazake and soy sauce It is amazing that koji is absolutely the foundation of the most fundamental Japanese drink and condiments It can be said safely that without koji there will be no Japanese cuisine of today In the West interest in koji is growing somewhat differently than in Japan Making amazake using koji is one thing but another is tenderizing meat using koji Koji is available in US at Japanese groceries or in internet but rather expensive On the other hand if you make it the cost will be about one tenth of the koji in the market With the newest method that the author developed making a small amount of koji successfully has become very easy This book not only describes step by step methods of making koji and its applications including sake shochu miso mirin amazake and soy sauce but answers many questions that the reader might have For example how to make sake sweeter or drier than the standard recipe Another example is what if different yeast is used in sake brewing Those answers are mostly from author s own research so they are not available in other books Another area of contents of this book is explanations of health benefits of many products of koji All of koji itself sake miso amazake have great medicinal effects The remarkable longevity of Japanese population may be attributed to these health benefits brought by koji
