As in all their books on the Habits of Mind, Costa and Kallick have a broad and worthwhile goal in mind. As they say in the concluding chapter of this volume, "If we want a future that is much more thoughtful, vastly more cooperative, greatly more compassionate and a whole lot more loving than we have, we have to invent it. That future is in our homes, schools and classrooms today. The Habits of Mind are the tools we all can use to invent our desired vision of the future."
