consistencies and bold changes in the career of one of the world's most exuberant and intriguing directors Agnes Varda

Alison Smith, 2019-01-04 The first introduction in English devoted wholly to Varda and aimed at a general and student audience Places Varda's major films in the context of her whole oeuvre and follows the development of important themes across her work A Medium Seen Otherwise Roger Hallas, 2023 Through a new look at how political historical and art documentaries engage with photographic images objects and archives A Medium Seen Otherwise argues that film allows us to better understand what people do with analog and digital photographs as material objects that enable social and political relations through multisensory experience Moreover as a time based medium with sound film can bring the event of photography into fuller view demonstrating how no single participant in it photographer subject camera photograph or viewer has sovereignty over its affect meaning or value The book thus explores the ways in which the innovative incorporation of photography into documentary film permits us to see both of these media otherwise Photographs whether professional or vernacular are conventionally understood to furnish documentaries with indexical evidence and visual illustration of history yet the spatio temporal and aural dimensions of film permit documentaries to illuminate photography's wider capacities beyond the merely representational Combining new critical perspectives on well known documentary filmmakers and photographers Agn's Varda Rithy Panh Edward Burtynsky Malick Sidib Vivian Maier JR Ken Burns Errol Morris and Akram Zaatar with analyses of lesser known but important documentaries author Roger Hallas investigates a global range of documentary and vernacular photographic contexts including Lebanon Palestine Mali Congo Cambodia Ireland Spain Mexico Chile Canada and the US While authorship and representation remain common rhetorical frameworks for documentaries about photography A Medium Seen Otherwise offers a compelling account of how the intermediality between documentary film and photography can posit far more expansive conceptions of both media A companion website shows clips of films discussed in the book Intermedial Dialogues Schmid Marion Schmid, 2019-05-23 Casting fresh light on one of the most important movements in film history Intermedial Dialogues The French New Wave and the Other Arts is the first comprehensive study of the New Wave's relationship with the older arts Traversing the fields of literature theatre painting architecture and photography and drawing on Andre Bazin alongside recent theories of intermediality it investigates the impure intermedial aesthetics of New Wave cinema Filmmakers under discussion include critics turned directors Francois Truffaut Eric Rohmer Jean Luc Godard Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol members of the Left Bank Group Alain Resnais Agnes Varda and Chris Marker but also lesser known directors notably the secret child of the New Wave Guy Gilles This wide ranging book offers an original reading of the complex often ambivalent ways in which the New Wave engages the other arts in both its discursive construction and filmic practice Key Features A wide ranging study which explores the complex often ambiguous ways in which the New Wave engages with the other arts in both its discursive construction and cinematic practice Affords a new prism for understanding New Wave filmmaking and its legacy through comprehensive analysis of the ways in which the New Wave aesthetic was shaped through intermedial dialogue and medium rivalry Reassesses one of the most acclaimed movements in film history drawing on cutting edge theory in the prominent field of intermediality studies Offers an inclusive heterogeneous view of the New Wave through inclusion of lesser known directors such as Guy Gilles Jean Daniel Pollet and Jacques Demy alongside renowned Nouvelle Vague filmmakers The Ethnographic Optic Laure Astourian, 2024-06-04 The Ethnographic Optic traces the surprising role of ethnography in French cinema in the 1960s and examines its place in several New Wave fictions and cinéma vérité documentaries during the final years of the French colonial empire Focusing on prominent French filmmakers Jean Rouch Chris Marker and Alain Resnais author Laure Astourian elucidates their striking pivot from centering their work on distant lands to scrutinizing their own French urban culture As awareness of the ramifications of the shrinking empire grew within metropolitan France these filmmakers turned inward what their similarly white urban bourgeois predecessors had long turned outward toward the colonies the ethnographic gaze Featuring some of the most canonical and best loved films of the French tradition such as Moi un Noir La jetée and Muriel this is an essential book for readers interested in national identity and cinema

Antifascism and the Avant-Garde Julia Alekseyeva, 2025-02-25 Leftist filmmakers of the 1960s revolutionized the art of documentary Often inspired by the radical art of the Soviet 1920s filmmakers in countries like France and Japan dared to make film form a powerful weapon in the fight against fascism weaving fiction into nonfiction and surrealism with neorealism to rupture everyday ways of being seeing and thinking Through careful readings of Matsumoto Toshio Jean Luc Godard Chris Marker Agnès Varda Hani Susumu and others Julia Alekseyeva shows that avant garde documentary films of the 1960s did not strive to inoculate the viewer with the ideology of Truth but instead aimed to unveil and estrange so that viewers might approach capitalist imperialist and fascist media with critical awareness Antifascism and the Avant Garde thus provides a transnational ecology of antifascist art that resonates profoundly with our current age     Digital Storytelling Mark
