Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe s colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo s book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next Teacher in Zimbabwe, 2014 School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain, 2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on school science practical work The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry based learning which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher dominated to a learner centered approach The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work contextual factors in the enactment of practical work and professional development in teaching practical work This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy Moto, 1998 Global Perspectives on Teacher Performance Improvement Al-Mahdi, Osama, Purinton, Ted, 2022-02-04 In service teacher professional development is central to most empirical conceptions of educational quality As the techniques and strategies for educational reform have spread rapidly throughout the world teacher professional development practices have been borrowed across borders It is important to study the global sharing of information on teacher professional development Global Perspectives on Teacher Performance Improvement examines the implementation of proven high quality teacher professional development practices in unique environments around the world It further explains the power of a globally connected community of teacher quality improvement Covering topics such as mentoring programs education technology and education workforce this book is an essential resource for educational administration and faculty pre service teachers the public education sector government officials educators of both K 12 and higher education researchers and academicians Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders
