Singa Krishnamoorti M.D. M.S.,2015-07-07 The purpose of this book is to emphasize that human beings are not of dust alone but they are a mixture of matter and spirit The matter is enlivened by the Spirit The enlivened matter principle known as the mind or the ego is mistaken for the spirit This misunderstanding leads to confusion as to who we really are By this mistake the problems of the ego are attributed to the spirit The spirit is a nonmatter changeless principle whereas the matter is subject to constant change This is very evident in the expression I am a human being Here the I am is the changeless principle and the human being who plays many roles is the changing principle A clear understanding of the above two principles and how they can bring immense relief to the suffering mind are elaborately discussed in this book Enhancing Student-Centred Teaching in Higher Education Karen Gravett,Nadya Yakovchuk,Ian M. Kinchin,2020-01-22 This book explores student staff partnerships through a breadth of co authored research projects There is a significant gap in current literature regarding student staff partnerships both in the sharing of examples as well as in the examination of partnership working and its impact Organised into four thematic sections the editors and contributors highlight the diversity of routes students and staff can take to work in partnership as well as how research learning and teaching can be co created Written by both university staff and student researchers the chapters consider the benefits of student staff partnerships as an antidote to consumerist visions of higher education and a way of celebrating the potential of students and their voices This book will be of interest and value to scholars of student staff partnerships      Pharmaceutical Record and Weekly Market Review P.
