

A photograph of a Parisian-style interior, likely a flea market or antique shop. The room is filled with various objects: a large, ornate chandelier in the upper left; a bronze statue of a winged cherub on a pedestal; a colorful abstract painting on an easel; a small bronze statue of a seated figure; a large, ornate metal structure resembling the Eiffel Tower; a blue elephant sculpture; and a framed drawing of a bird. The floor is made of stone tiles, and the walls are white with some artwork hanging on them.

metropolization criteria constructed and discussed this book goes beyond ordinary statistical approaches to integrate the interterritorial scale of metropolitan systems as well as their qualitative dimension Following in Simmel s footsteps it shows that a city is also an atmosphere a mentality a spirit all of which are poorly captured by statistical data As such the book focuses on five major themes networks economic development social issues urban form and the ecological and digital transition The books makes an interesting read for urban planners sociologists planners and architects and all specialists working in this field
