Woman's World, 1928 Best Recipes of the Maritime Provinces, 2012-09-25 Maritime cooking starts with great local produce: lobster, scallops, oysters, blueberries, apples, cranberries, maple syrup, and more. There are treasured traditional dishes: hodge-podge baked beans, gingerbread, blueberry grunt, as well as the simple but delicious lobster boil. Leading chefs like Craig Flinn of Halifax's Chives restaurant, Michael Howell of The Tempest in Wolfville, and many others have come up with wonderful new ways of cooking with fresh local ingredients. Best Recipes of the Maritime Provinces brings the traditional and the contemporary together in one great collection. During her many years as Canadian Living magazine's food editor, Elizabeth Baird was a great fan of Maritime cooking. She has visited every corner of the region to research and write about great local producers and cooks and their recipes. To prepare this collection, she started with well over 1,000 recipes published in cookbooks over the past three decades. From those, she has selected 400 recipes by over fifty of the region's leading chefs, including Elaine Elliot and Virginia Lee, whose bestselling Maritime Flavours has sold more than 30,000 copies. Also included are tasty recipes from healthy eating champions Maureen Tilley and Sandra Nowlan. This is the book that every Maritime cook will want and that visitors will take home so they can explore the region's rich culinary traditions. Recipes Using Leftovers Tarla Dalal, 2007-03-20 Left with a load of leftovers and don't know what to do? Don't despair. Here are some innovative suggestions for creating fresh dishes from leftover rice, bread, chapattis, pasta, khichdi, boiled potatoes, and miscellaneous items. This book, Recipes Using Leftovers, is just what you need. It offers inventive recipes for leftovers with an amazing range of selection suggestions ranging from quick snacks to more elaborate creations. And if you follow instructions carefully, no one will have any idea that the main ingredient in your dish is a leftover. Baking Powder Wars Linda Civitello, 2017-05-22 First patented in 1856, baking powder sparked a classic American struggle for business supremacy. For nearly a century, brands battled to win loyal consumers for the new leavening miracle transforming American commerce and advertising, even as they touched off a chemical revolution in the world's kitchens. Linda Civitello chronicles the titanic struggle that reshaped America's diet and rewrote its recipes. Presidents and robber barons, bare-knuckle litigation and bold-faced bribery, competing formulas and ruthless pricing. Civitello shows how hundreds of companies sought market control, focusing on the big four: Rumford, Calumet, Clabber Girl, and the once-popular brand Royal. She also tells the war's untold stories from Royal's claims that its competitors sold poison to the Ku Klux Klan's campaign against Clabber Girl and its German Catholic owners. Exhaustively researched and rich with detail, Baking Powder Wars is the forgotten story of how a dawning industry raised Cain and cakes, cookies, muffins, pancakes, donuts, and biscuits. Better Homes Recipe Book
