KIDNAPPED by ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON Robert Louis Stevenson, 2016-06-15 I will begin the story of my adventures with a certain morning early in the month of June the year of grace 1751 when I took the key for the last time out of the door of my father's house. The sun began to shine upon the summit of the hills as I went down the road and by the time I had come as far as the manse the blackbirds were whistling in the garden lilacs and the mist that hung around the valley in the time of the dawn was beginning to arise and die away. Mr Campbell the minister of Essendean was waiting for me by the garden gate good man. He asked me if I had breakfasted and hearing that I lacked for nothing he took my hand in both of his and clapped it kindly under his arm. Well Davie lad said he I will go with you as far as the ford to set you on the way. And we began to walk forward in silence. Are ye sorry to leave Essendean said he after awhile. Why sir said I if I knew where I was going or what was likely to become of me I would tell you candidly. Essendean is a good place indeed and I have been very happy there but then I have never been anywhere else. My father and mother since they are both dead I shall be no nearer to in Essendean than in the Kingdom of Hungary and to speak truth if I thought I had a chance to better myself where I was going I would go with a good will. Ay said Mr Campbell Very well Davie. Then it behoves me to tell your fortune or so far as I may. When your mother was gone and your father the worthy Christian man began to sicken for his end he gave me in charge a certain letter which he said was your inheritance. So soon says he as I am gone and the house is redd up and the gear disposed of all which Davie hath been done give my boy this letter into his hand and start him off to the house of Shaws not far from Cramond. That is the place I came from he said and it's where it befits that my boy should return. He is a steady lad your father said and a canny goer and I doubt not he will come safe and be well lived where he goes. The house of Shaws I cried. What had my poor father to do with the house of Shaws. Nay said Mr Campbell who can tell that for a surety. But the name of that family Davie boy is the name you bear Balfours of Shaws an ancient honest reputable house peradventure in these latter days decayed Your father too was a man of learning as befitted his position no man more plausibly conducted school nor had he the manner or the speech of a common dominie but as ye will yourself remember I took aye a pleasure to have him to the manse to meet the gentry and those of my own house Campbell of Kilrennet Campbell of Dunswire Campbell of Minch and others all well kened gentlemen had pleasure in his society Lastly to put all the elements of this affair before you here is the testamentary letter itself superscribed by the own hand of our departed brother He gave me the letter which was addressed in these words To the hands of Ebenezer Balfour Esquire of Shaws in his house of Shaws these will be delivered by my son David Balfour My heart was beating hard at this great prospect now suddenly opening before a lad of seventeen years of age the son of a poor country dominie in the Forest of Ettrick Mr Campbell I stammered and if you were in my shoes would you go Of a surety said the minister that would I and without pause A pretty lad like you should get to Cramond which is near in by Edinburgh in two days of walk If the worst came to the worst and your high relations as I cannot but suppose them to be somewhat of your blood should put you to the door ye can but walk the two days back again and risp at the manse door But I would rather hope that ye shall be well received as your poor father forecast for you and for anything that I ken come to be a great man in time
