The Art of Teaching Art Deborah A. Rockman, 2000-11-09 Often the finest artists do not make the best teachers Many frustrated college students of art know this all too well as they suffer through unstructured classes with inexperienced teachers or graduate student instructors In these situations it is easy to blame the teachers But the problem is largely institutional most students graduating with MFAs from art schools receive little if any instruction in teaching art If you find yourself in this predicament as teacher or student this book is for you The first book to provide a comprehensive guide for teaching college level art The Art of Teaching Art is the culmination of respected artist and instructor Deborah Rockman s two decades of teaching experience Believing that drawing is the backbone of all of the visual arts she begins with a complete explanation of drawing concepts that apply to any subject matter e g composition sighting processes scaling techniques and methods for linear and tonal development She then illustrates these concepts with step by step methods that easily translate to classroom exercises Next she applies the drawing principles to every artist s most important and challenging subject the human figure After an extended section on understanding and teaching perspective that explores illusionistic form and space the focus of the book shifts to the studio classroom itself and the essential elements that go into making an effective learning environment and curriculum From preparing materials lists and syllabi to setting up still lifes handling difficult classroom situations critiquing and grading student artworks and shooting slides of student artworks she leaves no stone unturned

What We Made Tom Finkelpearl, 2013-01-15 In What We Made Tom Finkelpearl examines the activist participatory coauthored aesthetic experiences being created in contemporary art He suggests social cooperation as a meaningful way to think about this work and provides a framework for understanding its emergence and acceptance In a series of fifteen conversations artists comment on their experiences working cooperatively joined at times by colleagues from related fields including social policy architecture art history urban planning and new media Issues discussed include the experiences of working in public and of working with museums and libraries opportunities for social change the lines between education and art spirituality collaborative opportunities made available by new media and the elusive criteria for evaluating cooperative art Finkelpearl engages the art historians Grant

Kester and Claire Bishop in conversation on the challenges of writing critically about this work and the aesthetic status of the dialogical encounter He also interviews the often overlooked co creators of cooperative art expert participants who have worked with artists In his conclusion Finkelpearl argues that pragmatism offers a useful critical platform for understanding the experiential nature of social cooperation and he brings pragmatism to bear in a discussion of Houston s Project Row Houses Interviewees Naomi Beckwith Claire Bishop Tania Bruguera Brett Cook Teddy Cruz Jay Dykeman Wendy Ewald Sondra Farganis Harrell Fletcher David Henry Gregg Horowitz Grant Kester Mierle Laderman Ukeles Pedro Lasch Rick Lowe Daniel Martinez Lee Mingwei Jonah Peretti Ernesto Pujol Evan Roth Ethan Seltzer and Mark Stern Drawing Essentials

Deborah A. Rockman,2009 Designed for introductory studio art courses in drawing Drawing Essentials thoroughly addresses the three subcategories that are generally considered most important at the foundation level basic drawing non subject specific figure drawing and perspective drawing It explains clearly and in depth the elements that are essential for depicting the illusion of form and space on a two dimensional surface Setting it apart from any other book on the market Drawing Essentials includes high quality student works drawn from Rockman s twenty five years of teaching as well as some carefully selected works from historical and contemporary masters Rockman also offers invaluable practical advice including coverage of traditional and nontraditional drawing media and surfaces information about alternative processes that can be combined with drawing and notes on career options building a resume photographing one s work and preparing a portfolio
