The Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature William Thomas Lowndes, 1834 Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt, 2023-03-21 In Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt argues that late medieval dream poetry was able to use the tools of allegorical fiction to explore a set of complex philosophical questions regarding the nature of human knowledge. The focus is on three of the most widely read and influential poems of the later Middle Ages: Jean de Meun's Roman de la Rose, the Pelerinages trilogy of Guillaume de Deguileville, and William Langland's vision of Piers Plowman in its various versions. All three poets grapple with a collection of shared closely related epistemological problems that emerged in Western Europe during the thirteenth century in the wake of the reception of the complete body of Aristotle's works on logic and the natural sciences. This study therefore not only examines the intertextual and literary historical relations linking the work of the three poets but takes their shared interest in cognition and epistemology as a starting point to assess their wider cultural and intellectual significance in the context of broader developments in late medieval philosophy of mind, knowledge, and language. Vernacular literature more broadly played an extremely important role in lending an enlarged cultural resonance to philosophical ideas developed by scholastic thinkers, but it is also shown that allegorical narrative could prompt philosophical speculation on its own terms, deliberately interrogating the dominance and authority of scholastic discourses and institutions by using first person fictional narrative as a tool for intellectual speculation.

Encyclopedia of Monasticism: A-L William M. Johnston, 2000 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informal company. The Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature Containing an Account of Rare, Curious, and Useful Books (etc.) William Thomas Lowndes, 1834 The Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature Containing an Account of Rare, Curious and Useful Books, Published in Or Relating to Great Britain and Ireland, from the Invention of Printing; ... William Thomas Lowndes, 1834 The Churchman's companion, 1878-07 A Century of Fiction in The New Yorker New Yorker Magazine Inc., 2025-02-04 Edited by The New Yorker's fiction editor Deborah Treisman, a celebratory selection from one hundred years of short stories in the magazine which has been the most influential and important showcase for the form and has launched dozens of stellar careers in fiction. There is simply no A-Z like the alphabet of fiction writers who have appeared in the pages of The New Yorker in the last hundred years. The book boasts inarguable classics like Salinger's A Perfect Day for Bananafish, Annie Proulx's Brokeback Mountain, and Shirley Jackson's The Lottery alongside stunners to be rediscovered. Some stories defined a moment or a now lost world: Isaac Bashevis Singer's The Cafeteria; others showed us a whole new way fiction could sound and feel: The Red Girl by Jamaica Kincaid. With this vivid selection, Treisman showcases how our fiction has changed over time and reminds us that past literary fashions continue to ripple outward in the fiction we love today. What does a Donald Barthelme mean to the craft of short fiction now? What will a Yiyun Li mean to the next generation of readers and writers? This exquisite tour of the form as practiced at its highest level will leap directly into

of John Cleland's correspondence this volume provides a rare insight into a significant literary life and into jobbing authorship in the eighteenth century. All known letters by and to Cleland are included entire alongside letter excerpts, diary entries, and documents in which he is discussed by friends, enemies, family members, and distant acquaintances. The volume also includes Cleland's christening record, a manuscript essay composed by Cleland in French on Litterateurs, and the will of Cleland's mother Lucy, whose many codicils reveal her determination to prevent her profligate son from squandering her fortune. Interspersed throughout are telling remarks about Cleland from figures such as Alexander Pope, Samuel Foote, Claude Pierre Patu, and most revealing and intriguing of all, vignettes by the great biographer James Boswell. The volume makes several new attributions and demonstrates for the first time the extent of Cleland's participation in the European Enlightenment.

Colette Nicole Ward Jouve, 1987. Though Colette's novels have been thought sentimental and she herself has earned a certain notoriety as a decadent sensualist, Nicole Ward Jouve argues that we need to look closely at Colette's work again and with the hindsight of feminist theory to rediscover that inimitable talent for the inscription of sensual and familial pleasure.

The New York Stories of Elizabeth Hardwick Elizabeth Hardwick, 2010-06-01. Elizabeth Hardwick was one of America's great postwar women of letters, celebrated as a novelist and as an essayist. Until now, however, her slim but remarkable achievement as a writer of short stories has remained largely hidden, with her work tucked away in the pages of the periodicals such as Partisan Review, The New Yorker, and The New York Review of Books, in which it originally appeared. This first collection of Hardwick's short fiction reveals her brilliance as a stylist and as an observer of contemporary life. A young woman returns from New York to her childhood Kentucky home and discovers the world of difference within her. A girl's boyfriend is not quite good enough; his silvery eyes light and cool, revealing nothing except pure possibility like a coin in hand. A magazine editor's life falls strangely to pieces after she loses both her husband and her job. Individual lives and the life of New York, the setting or backdrop for most of these stories, are strikingly and memorably depicted in Hardwick's beautiful and razor-sharp prose.

Contextualizing Premodern Philosophy Katja Krause, Luis Xavier López-Farjeat, Nicholas A. Oschman, 2023-01-13. This volume brings together contributions from distinguished scholars in the history of philosophy focusing on points of interaction between discrete historical contexts, religions, and cultures found within the premodern period. The contributions connect thinkers from antiquity through the Middle Ages and include philosophers from the three major monotheistic faiths: Judaism, Islam, and Christianity. By emphasizing premodern philosophy's shared textual roots in antiquity, particularly the writings of Plato and Aristotle, the volume highlights points of cross-pollination between different schools, cultures, and moments in premodern thought. Approaching the complex history of the premodern world in an accessible way, the editors organize the volume so as to underscore the difficulties the premodern period poses for scholars.

while accentuating the fascinating interplay between the Greek Hebrew Arabic and Latin philosophical traditions The contributors cover many topics ranging from the aims of Aristotle s cosmos the adoption of Aristotle s Organon by al F r b and the origins of the Plotiniana Arabica to the role of Ibn Gabirol s Fons vitae in the Latin West the ways in which Islamic philosophy shaped thirteenth century Latin conceptions of light Roger Bacon s adaptation of Avicenna for use in his moral philosophy and beyond The volume s focus on source based contextualism demonstrates an appreciation for the rich diversity of thought found in the premodern period while revealing methodological challenges raised by the historical study of premodern philosophy Contextualizing Premodern Philosophy Explorations of the Greek Hebrew Arabic and Latin Traditions is a stimulating resource for scholars and advanced students working in the history of premodern philosophy
