Kelly,2012-08-01 There are times we may feel overwhelmed by the hectic pace of our lives and when it comes time to reflect upon our day in meditation and prayer we may be unable to concentrate Finding inspiration and receiving grace each day is important to a prayerful life and 2013 A Book of Grace Filled Days provides a concise and structured way to listen to God's voice every day of the year 2013 A Book of Grace Filled Days is composed of daily meditations and Scripture readings that follow the lectionary readings of the church year giving us a portal to God's loving grace filled presence in the midst of our busy lives Each page lists the Scripture readings from the Mass for that day a quotation from the readings and a brief reflection to spur meditation prayer and selfexamination The readings and meditations take note of major feast days especially solemnities holidays and significant saints commemorations Each entry is short enough to be read in just a minute or two but powerful enough to help us feel God's peace and loving presence throughout the day Prayer doesn't always have to take a lot of time for us to grow in faith daily we can spend a few quiet moments with God and be united with our church community in prayer through the lectionary based meditations in 2013

Schaefer, 2013-10-08 Through a study of the church of Santa Prassede Mary M Schaefer offers a compelling examination of the golden ages for women active in ecclesial ministries critically measuring feminist claims and providing evidence contrary to the official Roman position that women have never been ordained in the Catholic Church The ninth century church of Santa Prassede has been studied intensively in recent years yet no scholar has yet recognized the significance of the balanced male and female imagery both men and women disciples Peter and Paul as family friends Praxedes and her sister as house church leaders in the post apostolic period assisted by bishop Pius I and Pope Paschal's mother Theodora episcopa for example Praxedes identification as presbytera by a Roman priest historian in 1655 and by the Benedictine prior of the church in 1725 prompts analysis of women's ordination rites in churches of East and West Santa Prassede preserves one of the largest intact programs of church decoration in Rome up to 1200 Schaefer investigates its scriptural and liturgical sources and in turn reexamines its foundation myth With the story of the church Schaefer provides a detailed study of women in pastoral office especially diaconas presbyteras and episcopal abbesses from the first through twelfth centuries in the West Women in Pastoral Office also shows how the liturgy as well as the vita of Praxedes and her sister Pudentiana whose fourth century church is located down the hill shaped this outstanding commission of the builder Pope Paschal I 817-824

the sensory and affective dimensions of ordinary Christians who assembled for rituals With precious few first person accounts by common Christians it relies on written sources not typically associated with lived religion sermons liturgical instruction books and festal hymns All three genres of writing are composed by clergy for use in ritual settings Yet they may also provide glimpses of everyday Christians lives and experiences This book investigates the habits objects behaviors and movements of ordinary Christians by mining festal preaching by John Chrysostom Cyril of Jerusalem Gregory of Nyssa and Romanos the Melodist among others It also mines liturgical instructions to explore the psalms and other songs performed on various feast days Unfinished then connotes the creativity and agency of unremarkable Christians who engaged in making religious experiences the Christian in progress who learns to work with material and bring something into being the artisans who attended sermons and more widely the bearers of embodied knowing
