Matching Minds with Sondheim Barry Joseph, 2025-10-02 By near universal consensus Stephen Sondheim was the greatest musical theater composer of his generation celebrated among other things for the wit sophistication and intricacy of shows from West Side Story to Sunday in the Park with George But a less well known avenue for his brilliance was his lifelong fascination with designing and constructing intricate puzzles and games from treasure hunts to crosswords to parlor and board games Matching Minds with Sondheim is a journey into this rich but largely unmapped aspect of the composer's creative life illuminating how Sondheim's playful designs delivered moments of clarity and connection for friends colleagues and anyone who's ever been captivated by his genius This book opens for the first time the door into what Sondheim called his puzzler's mind helping readers to better understand the man his work and if they accept the challenge themselves Gaming expert Barry Joseph draws from over eighty years of Sondheim's activities including extremely rare and never publicly seen puzzles and game designs scores of original interviews with the celebrity friends who played them archival deep dives and illuminating analysis from both puzzle designers and theater professionals from around the world Packed with illustrations and insights this book does more than describe Sondheim's life in puzzles It allows readers to match minds with the maestro by attempting to solve his puzzles and bring Sondheimian games into their own homes

Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs
