Wen-Yi, Lee 李文怡

Personal Background

My name is Lee Wen-Yi and I come from Taoyuan. I grow up in a healthy and happy family. Although being the youngest child in my family, I have told and trained to be autonomous and independent in daily life. Therefore, my parents always respect my own decisions since adolescence. They instruct me how to be a responsible person instead of pushing me finishing my school assignments. Thus, they both play a crucial role in my life. My parents are factory workers who did not receive high education and attend high school, but they do educate me as best as they can. In my early childhood, they provided me opportunities to learn English for interest even though they had financial difficulties. They always remind us of being hard working and trying not to give up easily. This is how I learned patience, diligence, and determination—setting up a future goal and trying to achieve that goal steadily and systematically.

Thanks to the opportunity my parents gave me, I started to learn English and get in touch with western culture. Because I was highly motivated to learn English, I studied so hard in each step of learning that I have won numerous prizes within 6-year period of English learning. Although I came across difficulties in grammatical rules and speaking ability sometimes, I never give up easily and I would ask questions with much patience. These experiences of learning English have set up a solid foundation for my future learning.

However, I did not able to keep my enthusiasm for English. Considering our financial circumstance, I decided to go to a military academy after senior high school.

Military Career v.s University

After receiving half-year training in the Air Force Institute of Technology, I was assigned to the Air Force Sungshan Air Base and responsible for analyzing the maintaining records of airplanes. I had served there for three years and then was assigned to the Cultural Affairs and Psychological Warfare Section of the Command
