The Special Service Worship Architect Constance M. Cherry, 2013-07-15 One of the Best Books of 2013 Worship Leader This book takes the principles found in Constance Cherry's successful The Worship Architect in which she provided dynamic blueprints for designing worship services and applies them to special services in the life of the church. Cherry, a worship professor and practitioner, offers theological reflection, practical guidance, and suggested resources to help worship leaders and ministry students in training to create meaningful special services related to the sacraments, life passages, and other occasions. Cherry sets forth a process concerning worship design for special services and demonstrates how this process is conducive to virtually any style of worship practiced today in a myriad of Christian communities. She includes a model order for each service type, including weddings, funerals, baptisms, child dedications, Holy Communion, and more. The book not only explains what leaders do in order to preside at special services and how to do it, but also why they make certain choices. Each chapter includes discussion questions, practical exercises, and a basic glossary. Prayers with Pizzazz for Junior High

Teens Judi Lanciotti, 1996 This collection of user-friendly, fast-paced, active prayer experiences includes themes that range from the personal to the global, from parables to developing slide shows. They can be used in classroom settings, on retreats, and in youth group gatherings. The Ceremonies and Religious Customs of the Various Nations of the Known World, 1741

I Will Surely Multiply Your Offspring Jamie Viands, 2013-12-04 After creating man and woman, God's first recorded blessing upon them is to be fruitful and multiply. Like the blessings of food and health, the human experience of procreation is so common that we may overlook its importance within the biblical narrative. However, I Will Surely Multiply Your Offspring, a comprehensive examination of the progeny blessing, demonstrates that this motif is both prevalent and significant within the Old Testament by tracing its development throughout the redemptive historical narrative. Viands identifies different progeny blessing traditions associated with the Abrahamic covenant, the Sinai covenant, and the new covenant, and describes their interrelationships as well as their relationship to the universal blessing first found in Genesis 1. This study lays the foundation for a biblical worldview of human proliferation, contributing to contemporary discussions concerning whether humans are obligated to bear children as well as procreation ethics. Joined by the Church, Sealed by a Blessing Diana Macalintal, Nick Wagner, 2014-09-22 Joined by the Church, Sealed by a Blessing does more than help parish leaders plan excellent wedding liturgies and prepare engaged couples well. It enables parish leaders to address the challenges of increased divorce fewer Catholic weddings empty pews on Sundays and the increasing number of people who choose no faith This is the one book that will give you a comprehensive plan to address these concerns with confidence creativity and clarity With over fifty years of combined hands on experience in parish and diocesan liturgy preparation and catechumenate formation Diana Macalintal and Nick Wagner give you more than just another marriage preparation resource They give you a parish transformation tool Proceedings at the Presentation of a Portrait of John Greenleaf Whittier to

Omoko,2018-06-14 Professor Darah turned seventy on Wednesday November 22 2017 and to celebrate his very productive career his colleagues and many of those he has mentored thought it appropriate to mark his official exit from the university in a dignified way by commissioning for publication in the now acceptable festschrift tradition the highly compelling and outstanding collection of essays titled Scholarship and Commitment Essays in Honour of G G Darah The book is a ground breaking collection of essays some are couched as tributes to the ebullient celebrant there are others on more serious discourses in the areas of literary theories and criticism language and linguistics popular literature and politics the African woman identity and contemporary realities oral literature the news media and cultural studies The essays on their own attest to the vivacity and liveliness as well as the encouraging state of health of publishing in the Nigerian academia which in this collection alone parades forty two essays in different fields or discourses "The Place is Too Small for Us" R. P. Gordon, 1995 The title of this volume is of course taken from 2 Kgs 6:1 where the prophetic group about Elisha point out that their accommodation is too cramped It seemed an apt comment on the capacity of any proposed volume to house and adequate representation of the work that has recently been done on Israelite prophecy To this I now have to add the all too ironic confession that the so called pre classical prophets including Elisha and his colleagues could not be accommodated in the present volume Let no one complain about being misled by the subtitle when the title is so honest there are thirty six items of varying length and they divide almost equally between journal articles and excerpts from volumes some of these of composite authorship Naturally they represent one individual's selection from within his personal reading and this itself accounts for only a fraction of the vast scholarly output on the prophets whether since 1875 or since 1975 It will be apparent at several places in the volume that I take with great seriousness the study of Near Eastern non Israelite prophecy as background to the Israelite phenomenon so that the first short section The Near Eastern Background was unavoidable Editor's preface The Lure of Transcendence and the Audacity of Prayer Samuel E. Balentine, 2022-06-24 The discourse of prayer responds to the abiding lure of transcendence From Gilgamesh to the primordial human beings in Eden to Odysseus the quest for ultimate truths has summoned forth all manner of human effort courageous desperate pious impious successful failed invited forbidden and like all such lures one can never be certain whether the glimmer of transcendence is that of a bright and shining star that illuminates the shadows or only a shiny object that seduces one into an inescapable darkness a fishing lure for example In this study Samuel E Balentine demonstrates how prayer's invocation of God transgresses the limits of human beings The author shows how inviting let alone commanding God to speak may be the acme of bardic pretention but in the ancient world such transgression characterizes the audacity of prayer
