Crime and Social Organization Elin J. Waring,David Weisburd, This tenth volume in the Advances in Criminological Theory series is dedicated to the work of Albert J Reiss Jr It focuses on the relationship between crime and social organization that is so central to his work This focus rejects a view of crime solely as the action of atomistic individuals and sees the criminal justice system as inseparable from its social political and organizational context This perspective has had a resurgence in recent years and this volume brings together some of the most important scholars who have contributed to these developments Articles examine the social organization of crime itself the context of crime and the response to crime The concept of co offending originally developed by Reiss is explored both as a way of improving understanding of juvenile offending and as a framework for understanding patterns of criminal organization across crime types and the relationship of criminal to licit organization Other articles recast social disorganization theory in light of recent theoretical and empirical developments They argue for a version of control theory that incorporates internal contextual and state focused dimensions Organizational actors both as offenders and as governmental agencies responding to crime are explored Building from Reiss s groundbreaking work on policing a group of articles on policing examine organizational change through reorganization the adoption of strategies such as community policing and the increased use of empirical evidence complicated by routines organizational culture and political constraints Taken together these works develop new connections between dimensions of social organization and renew the social organization perspective on crime and criminal justice Contributors include Diane Vaughan Joan McCord Kevin P Conway Elin Waring Felton Earls Beat Mohler Peter Manning Stephen Mastrofski Lawrence Sherman David Weisburd Robert Sampson David F Greenberg Margaret Kelley Robin Tamarelli and Jeremy Travis

Crisis Negotiations Michael McMains, Wayman Mullins, Andrew Young, 2020-07-16 Crisis Negotiations Managing Critical Incidents and Hostage Situations in Law Enforcement and Corrections the sixth edition is an invaluable resource for mitigating managing or responding to high risk negotiation incidents This revision includes the current research on negotiating high risk incidents in the classroom and the field It includes an applied analysis of the value of psychopathology to high risk perpetrators It refines the empirical eclecticism introduced in the fourth edition to provide a conceptual basis for crisis negotiations The authors include summary bullet points at the end of each chapter for easy reference when negotiators are in the field and a review of the literature since the last edition appeared. Their discussion of the strategic planning process involved in high risk negotiation incidents focuses clearly on the critical questions negotiators need to ask themselves about any high risk incident and provides a practical approach to the psychology of individuals that engage in high risk incidents. Known as the bible to experienced professionals in the field, this sixth edition of Crisis Negotiations is vital for practitioners as well as for criminology, criminal justice, or psychology courses in crisis management, applied psychology, and special operations in law enforcement and corrections. Instructors will find it well supported by ancillary materials including discussion questions, slide presentations, and a test bank, as well as case studies and self assessment quizzes for students, making it easy to develop a first time course or to integrate it into an existing course.
