Refugee Learner Experiences. A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children

Lawrence Meda, 2017-09 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner's Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time

Facets of Power Richard Saunders, Tinashe Nyamunda, 2016-04-18 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the world's largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwa's diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the country's security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwa's diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the minerals secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them

Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts

Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy

The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja,Meshach B. Ogunniyi,2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing fa ade of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations. Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation, this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong. The authors discuss their experience of the validation process, demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders.

Global Perspectives on Teacher Performance Improvement Al-Mahdi, Osama, Purinton, Ted, 2022-02-04 In-service teacher professional development is central to most empirical conceptions of educational quality. As the techniques and strategies for educational reform have spread rapidly throughout the world, teacher professional development practices have been borrowed across borders. It is important to study the global sharing of information on teacher professional development. Global Perspectives on Teacher Performance Improvement examines the implementation of proven high quality teacher professional development practices in unique environments around the world. It further explains the power of a globally connected community of teacher quality improvement. Covering topics such as mentoring programs, education technology, and education workforce, this book is an essential resource for educational administration and faculty, pre-service teachers, the public education sector, government officials, educators of both K-12 and higher education, researchers, and academicians.
