Oceano Mare Alessandro Baricco:

Ocean Sea Alessandro Baricco, 2024-12-18 From the author of the international bestseller Silk Vividly erotic Los Angeles Times A heartbreaking love story a literary gem of bewitching power The Sunday Times London comes a haunting suspenseful tale of love and vengeance A handful of disparate lives converge at a remote seaside inn a lovelorn professor a renowned painter an inscrutable seductress And a beautiful young girl fatally ill brought to the sea by a desperate father s last hope An intricate web of destinies and associations begins to reveal itself but it is not until the arrival of a mysterious sailor called Adams that the truth in all its dreamlike beauty and cruelty becomes clear Adams may furnish the key to the girl s salvation but only the fulfillment of his obsessive secret purpose to answer murder with murder can conclude the journey that has brought him from the ends of the earth At once playful and profoundly serious Alessandro Baricco s new novel surges with the hypnotic power of the ocean sea Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin

Healey, 2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature The Mirage of America in Contemporary Italian Literature and Film Barbara

Alfano, 2013-07-15 The Mirage of America in Contemporary Italian Literature and Film explores the use of images associated with the United States in Italian novels and films released between the 1980s and the 2000s In this study Barbara Alfano looks at the ways in which the individuals portrayed in these works and the intellectuals who created them confront the cultural construct of the American myth As Alfano demonstrates this myth is an integral part of Italians discourse to define themselves culturally in essence Italian intellectuals talk about America often for the purpose of talking about Italy The book draws attention to the importance of Italian literature and film as explorations of an individual s ethics and to how these productions allow for functioning across cultures It thus differentiates itself from other studies on the subject that aim at establishing the relevance and influence of American culture on Italian twentieth century artistic representations

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars

Voicing the Word Marina Spunta, 2004 Drawing on the recent renewal of interest in the debate on orality and literacy this book investigates the varying perceptions and representations of orality in contemporary Italian fiction providing a fresh perspective on this rich and fast developing debate and on the study of the Italian literary language The book brings together a number of complementary approaches to orality from the fields of linguistics literary and media studies and offers a detailed analysis of a broad variety of authors and texts that appeared over the last three decades ranging from internationally acclaimed writers such as Celati Duranti and Tabucchi through De Luca and Baricco to the latest generation of writers such as Campo Ballestra and Nove By exploring the complementary facets of Italian orality and its diachronical developments since the seventies this study questions the traditionally dichotomic approach to the study of orality and literacy and posits a more flexible cross modal approach that accounts for the increasing hybridisation of text forms and media and for the greater interaction between the spoken and the written as well as their representations

The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05 Born and brought up in Poland bilingually in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one and his work from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness Nostromo and The Secret Agent to his later novels has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age With chapters written by leading international scholars this book provides a wide ranging survey of the reception translation and publication history of Conrad s works across Europe Covering reviews and critical discussion and with some attention to adaptations in other media these chapters situate Conrad s works in their social and political context The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad s reception throughout the continent

Navigating Learning, Culture, and Identity in Island Education Bufalino, Giambattista, 2025-06-06 Navigating Learning Culture and Identity in Island Education invites readers into the lived educational experiences of island communities where geography tradition and the rhythms of the natural world converge to characterize distinctive pedagogical practices In these contexts educational processes are characterized by situated relationships with the land and sea with cultural memory and identity and with the often close knit social fabric of island communities While challenged by limited infrastructure and scarce resources island communities cultivate pedagogies of resilience adaptive situated and deeply relational These educational approaches emerge not in spite of isolation but through it formed by proximity interdependence and a sustained attentiveness to place Navigating Learning

Culture and Identity in Island Education explores selected educational landscapes across a range of island communities worldwide From the Greek Aegean to the Ryukyus from Ponza and Sicily to the Maldives Philippines Solomon Islands and the Canadian Maritimes this volume highlights how spatial distinctiveness cultural hybridity and ecological vulnerability shape the ways in which people learn teach and lead in island contexts Educational practices arise in response to local histories environmental precarity linguistic and cultural diversity and the legacies of colonization Themes explored include school community collaboration sustainability education inclusive and intercultural pedagogy literary imaginaries of the sea leadership development and the complex transitions faced by students in island based higher education Spanning formal non formal and community based learning across various small island states and territories the chapters establish a productive dialogue between educational research and island studies This volume offers both theoretical insights and practical approaches for educators scholars and policymakers seeking educational paradigms that are both locally grounded and globally resonant At once rooted and far reaching Navigating Learning Culture and Identity in Island Education invites readers to rethink what education means in places defined not only by their geography but by their imaginative cultural and ecological distinctiveness

Complex Words, Causatives, Verbal Periphrases and the Gerund Petr Čermák, Dana Kratochvílová, Olga Nádvorníková, Pavel Štichauer, 2020-05-01 The monograph focuses on the typological differences between the four most widely spoken Romance languages Spanish Portuguese French and Italian and Czech Utilizing data from InterCorp the parallel corpus project of the Czech National Corpus the book analyses various categories expression of potential non volitional participation iterativity causation beginning of an action and adverbial subordination to discover differences and similarities between Czech and the Romance languages Due to the massive amount of data mined as well as the high number of languages examined the monograph presents general and individual typological features of the four Romance languages and Czech that often exceed what has previously been accepted in the field of comparative linguistics
