Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary Schools: A Research-Based Approach

Cekiso, Madoda, Olifant, Florence, Mokhtari, Kouider, 2025-04-23 Teaching reading comprehension to English learners ELs in secondary schools presents unique challenges as these students must navigate the complexities of academic texts and the intricacies of language acquisition. Effective instruction requires a research-based approach that considers the diverse linguistic, cultural, and cognitive backgrounds of these learners. Recent studies highlight the importance of integrating strategies that build both language proficiency and content knowledge, essential for helping ELs develop the skills needed to comprehend complex materials. Fostering metacognitive awareness through strategies like summarizing, questioning, and making connections can empower students to become active and strategic readers. This approach recognizes the need for a supportive, inclusive classroom environment that encourages language development while promoting academic achievement in content areas. Further research may help educators provide English learners with the tools to thrive as capable readers in secondary school. Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary School: A Research-Based Approach explores various aspects of teaching reading comprehension to English Second Language (ESL) learners in secondary schools. It examines current challenges and evidence-based strategies in reading comprehension. This book covers topics such as language learning, reading strategies, and teacher training and is a useful resource for academicians, researchers, and scientists.

Research Outlook, Innovation & Research Trends in Management Dr Prashant P Chaudhari, Dr Jasdeep Kaur Dhami, Mrs Priyanka Gupta, 2020-10-25 The aim of this book is to provide a concise presentation of the theory and practice in the field of management studies with particular emphasis on effective and innovative practices. The scope is comprehensive and research-based and yet presents the content in an accessible manner ready to be applied in management practice. The book presents conventional and newer tools for research in management studies. These themes are anchored in the core elements of management studies together with inputs from current research efforts. By adding quality research articles and related case studies, it can form a solid base for researchers in the management field. With a general grounding in the strategy literature including key references, it might even serve as a useful core text for PhD students with a general interest in the management field. R & D teams in the twenty-first century will work on complex problems that require the input of a variety of disciplines and often involve collaboration among specialists located on different continents. Add the business dimensions of marketing, finance, design, production, and legal assistance, and the management of research, development, and innovation is clearly demanding. This book is directed primarily to students, academicians, and other professionals in the field of management. Beyond the quality professional group, the book will also attract attention of research scholars pursuing PhD in the field of management. At a glance, this book is targeted to the needs of individuals engaged in the field of teaching and research of management. Creative and innovative topics are presented to the audience in a way that enables them to incorporate new proficiencies into their day to day work We would like to thank all the contributors who have made the production of this book so fascinating and enjoyable Their scholarship and dedicated commitment and motivation to getting it right are the keys to the book s quality and we greatly appreciate their good nature over many months in the face of our editorial demands and time limits We are also grateful for using their texts ideas and critical remarks We would also like to thank Dr Craig N Refugio Dr D Ayub Khan Dawood all reviewers and all authors for their help in consolidating the interdisciplinary of the book We are grateful to all the 18 institutions for their support It will not be possible to bring out this edition

Cancer, Radiation Therapy, and the Market Barbara Bridgman Perkins,2017-08-16 Appraising cancer as a major medical market in the 2010s Wall Street investors placed their bets on single technology treatment facilities costing 100 300 million each Critics inside medicine called the widely publicized proton center boom crazy medicine and unsustainable public policy There was no valid evidence they claimed that proton beams were more effective than less costly alternatives But developers expected insurance to cover their centers staggeringly high costs and debts Was speculation like this new to health care Cancer Radiation Therapy and the Market shows how the radiation therapy specialty in the United States later called radiation oncology coevolved with its device industry throughout the twentieth century Academic engineers and physicians acquired financing to develop increasingly powerful radiation devices initiated companies to manufacture the devices competitively and designed hospital and freestanding procedure units to utilize them In the process they incorporated market strategies into medical organization and practice Although palliative benefits and striking tumor reductions fueled hopes of curing cancer scientific research all too often found serious patient harm and disappointing beneficial impact on cancer survival This thoroughly documented and provocative inquiry concludes that public health policy needs to re evaluate market driven high tech medicine and build evidence based health care systems □□□□□□□□ □□□
