was full of both challenges and rewards and dealt plenty of disasters and close calls including grizzly encounters but the lodge business supported the family and gained a steady clientele who were enticed back year after year by the warm welcome beautiful setting and plentiful salmon giant halibut and ling cod After running the lodge together for twenty seven years George passed away from cancer Despite all the advice she received to the contrary Pat decided to run the business on her own with the assistance of her two children Through resolve and strength in adversity Pat outgrew the shadow of Hurricane Ardley and earned an intimidating nickname of her own Don't Mess with Me Ardley Reminiscent of British Columbia classics like Fishing with John I Heard the Owl Call My Name and the evocative wilderness writings of Chris Czakowski this memoir is a touching tribute to coastal life
