Green, Thomas G. Long, Luke A. Powery, Cynthia L. Rigby, Carolyn J. Sharp, 2020-04-14 Designed to empower preachers as they lead congregations to connect their lives to Scripture Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary This nine volume series offers creative commentary on each reading in the three year lectionary cycle by viewing that reading through the lens of its connections to the rest of Scripture and then seeing the reading through the lenses of culture film fiction ethics and other aspects of contemporary life Commentaries on the Psalms make connections to the other readings and to the congregations experience of worship Connections is published in partnership with Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary From Page to Proclamation Clare Schwantes, 2024-11-19 This pioneering work invites readers to embark on a transformative journey through the heart of liturgical worship and scriptural proclamation It introduces a new tier to biblical hermeneutics exploring the ways in which the liturgical event and the ecclesial community color the interpretation of Scripture Weaving together insights from Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics with the rich tapestry of Catholic liturgy the author proposes that the meaning of a proclaimed Scripture passage emerges not from an analysis of the text itself but in the vibrant interplay of multiple horizons Bible Lectionary homilist and worshiper Through a lens of play and festival the intricate relationship between tradition and contemporary worship is explored showcasing how the sensory richness of the Catholic liturgy shapes the interpretation of Scripture It challenges readers to view the Lectionary as a living collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Prayer, 2021-12-16 The essays collected in this volume provide a resource for thinking theologically about the practice of Christian prayer In the first of four parts the volume begins by reaching back to the biblical foundations of prayer Then each of the chapters in the second part investigates a classical Christian doctrine including God creation Christology pneumatology providence and eschatology from the perspective of prayer The chapters in the third part explore the writings of some of the great theorizers of prayer in the history of the Christian tradition The final part gathers a set of creative and critical conversations on prayer responding to a variety of contemporary issues Overall the T T Clark Handbook of Christian Prayer articulates a theologically expansive account of prayer one that is deeply biblical energetically doctrinal historically rooted and relevant to a whole host of critical questions and concerns facing the world today For the Healing of the Nation William Russell Pregeant, 2016-04-14 For the Healing of the Nation offers a serious look at the social and political climate in the United States from a biblical perspective emphasizing race and otherness economics and the environment and institutional violence war and capital punishment An autobiographical thread traces the journey of a white male coming of age in the mid twentieth century Deep South as his evolving faith leads him to painful breaks with inherited values and standard views on controversial issues Critical not only of both major political parties but also of centrist compromises between Right and Left Russell Pregeant seeks a forward position which he terms ecocommunitarian based on biblical values His musings touch on both southern and American identities and on the nature of the biblical writings and the ways they should and should not be used in contemporary debates Central to the entire work are discussions of how idolatrous commitments to a culture s prevalent ideologies obscure the essential demands of biblical faith Animals in Heaven? Terry Martin, 2024-09-26 Christians of all traditions have often puzzled with the question Do dogs go to heaven Drawing on Catholic teaching and on his long pastoral experience as a parish priest Terry Martin expands that concept to consider wider issues around all animals domesticated and free living and why they are here Within a context of Christian faith he seeks to understand the place of animals in God s complex creation and the relationship that human beings have for good or ill with those animals More than that he looks at the big questions which so many ask about who under God animals are and what meaning if any animal lives have from a Catholic Christian perspective

The ^ACare of Nuns Katie Ann-Marie Bugyis, 2019-04-01 In her ground breaking new study Katie Bugyis offers a new history of communities of Benedictine nuns in England from 900 to 1225 By applying innovative paleographical codicological and textual analyses to their surviving liturgical books Bugyis recovers a treasure trove of unexamined evidence for understanding these women's lives and the liturgical and pastoral ministries they performed Essential to this argument is the discovery that the production of the liturgical books used in these communities was carried out by female scribes copyists correctors and creators of texts attesting to the agency and creativity that nuns exercised in the care they extended to themselves and those who sought their hospitality counsel instruction healing forgiveness and intercession The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles George Herbermann,1914 The Old Testament Is Dying (Theological Explorations for the Church Catholic) Brent A.
