Department of Printed Books,1881 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum,1881 Subject Guide to Reprints ,1979 Journey to the West Wu Cheng'en,2008-09-15 China's most popular traditional novel Journey to the West is the thrilling story of the Monkey King and his epic quest with his trusted companions to redeem himself They face fantastic foes demons and monsters during their amazing adventures traveling to the Western paradise No matter what obstacle was put before him the clever wily Monkey King always got what he wanted unimaginable strength eternal life even his own position in the Celestial Realm with the gods More than anything else though the Monkey King loved mischief and rule breaking and was sure he was the most powerful creature in the world But after defeat and punishment for his tricks the Monkey King found himself wanting some things he never expected to be disciplined and good enough to help the monk Hsuan Zhang on his mission to bring Buddhist Scriptures and enlightenment to China Readers of all ages will thrill to Timothy Richard's retelling of the Monkey King's exploits whether in the Dragon King's underwater castle the Halls of the Dead or the palace of Buddha himself and find themselves captivated as the Monkey King joins Hsuan Zhang and their companions the Dragon Horse the Monk Sand and the equally mischievous Pig on the dangerous trek West Despite the tale's ancient origins Journey to the West proves as fresh and engaging an adventure as anything written today Languages, Scripts, and Chinese Texts in East Asia Peter Francis Kornicki,2018 Chinese Writing and the Rise of the Vernacular in East Asia is a wide ranging study of vernacularization in East Asia not only China Japan Korea and Vietnam but also societies that no longer exist such as the Tangut and Khitan empires Peter Kornicki takes the reader from the early centuries of the common era when the Chinese script was the only form of writing and Chinese Buddhist Confucian and medical texts spread throughout East Asia through the centuries when vernacular scripts evolved right up to the end of the nineteenth century when nationalism created new roles for vernacular languages and vernacular scripts Through an examination of oral approaches to Chinese texts it shows how highly valued Chinese texts came to be read through the prism of the vernaculars and ultimately to be translated This long process has some parallels with vernacularization in Europe but a crucial difference is that literary Chinese was unlike

Latin not a spoken language As a consequence people who spoke different East Asian vernaculars had no means of communicating in speech but they could communicate silently by means of written conversation in literary Chinese a further consequence is that within each society Chinese texts assumed vernacular garb in classes and lectures Chinese texts were read and declaimed in the vernaculars What happened in the nineteenth century and why are there still so many different scripts in East Asia How and why were Chinese texts dethroned and what replaced them These are some of the questions addressed in Chinese Writing and the Rise of the Vernacular in East Asia

The Teachings and Practices of the Early Quanzhen Taoist Masters Stephen Eskildsen, 2012-02-01 Stephen Eskildsen's book offers an in depth study of the beliefs and practices of the Quanzhen Complete Realization School of Taoism the predominant school of monastic Taoism in China The Quanzhen School was founded in the latter half of the twelfth century by the eccentric holy man Wan Zhe 1113-1170 whose work was continued by his famous disciples commonly known as the Seven Realized Ones This study draws upon surviving texts to examine the Quanzhen masters approaches to mental discipline intense asceticism cultivation of health and longevity mystical experience supernormal powers death and dying charity and evangelism and ritual From these primary sources Eskildsen provides a clear understanding of the nature of Quanzhen Taoism and reveals its core emphasis to be the cultivation of clarity and purity of mind that occurs not only through seated meditation but also throughout the daily activities of life
