Re: Termination of our representation agreement

Dear Mr. Norman

After my efforts to resolve the issues proved futile, I'm writing to officially inform you that I've decided to terminate our current representation agreement immediately and I have already found another attorney to take over. Please refrain from taking any further action on my behalf.

I am terminating our agreement because of your incompetence and carelessness. Our agreement was very clear that you have to update me on my case status every week and I expected that you will hand my matter with due diligence and care but to my surprise, you have turned the tables as I've been calling your office for three months and have received no updates on the status of my case.

Please send me a copy of my entire case file, as well as an itemized invoice reflecting all fees, including amounts already charged and any amounts you claim, are still owed to my above-mentioned address within 7 days of receiving this letter.

Sincerely

BOB KING
