On Behalf of the President Lauren A. Wright, 2016-04-18 White House expert Lauren A Wright identifies explains and measures the impact of the expanding role of presidential spouses in the White House and presidential campaign communications strategy with a focus on the Clinton Bush and Obama administrations More than any other time in history the First Lady now bears responsibilities tantamount to those of any high ranking cabinet member This fascinating book documents the growing presence of the president's wife in the communications strategies of the last three administrations explaining why their involvement in a campaign has been critical to its survival The book explores how the First Lady serves to persuade public opinion make personal appeals to the public on behalf of the president and promote initiatives that serve as uncontroversial frames for controversial policies The author delves into political discussions about what makes presidents and presidential candidates likable what draws public support to their agendas and why spouses appear to be more effective in these arenas than other surrogates or even the presidents themselves The content features dozens of interviews with former White House staff and communications strategists in depth analysis of almost 1 700 public speeches made by Hillary Clinton Laura Bush and Michelle Obama and surveys testing the effect of public relations strategies involving spouses on political opinion

Preparing for Growth and Marketing in Today's Church Michael Dixon, 2022-08-05 Churches are facing a crisis of epidemic proportions attendance is dropping empty pews are not being refilled and doors are closing Unfortunately the leadership in today's churches are not trained nor equipped to handle this crisis Leaders at all levels must know how to be an effective leader and communicate in a 360 degree radius effectively with each person they are in contact with Knowing and understanding what the objectives of the church are is of paramount importance Planning for church growth is more than a simple prayer Church growth starts with prayers visions of where God wants the church to go and an evaluation and analysis of where the church is Unfortunately not every church is prepared for growth and must take the necessary steps to be prepared for growth Love sells itself and love must be shown to all those who not only enter the church's doors but throughout the community Love is not shown by being the loud carnival barker who is selling chances to win a stuffed animal but by actions Love is a warm smile a heartfelt welcome a firm handshake or hug a short sweet introduction a sincere inquiry about the person and most importantly love is listening Love does not sell anything especially denominationalism The life cycle of the church must be understood and leadership must know where the church is in the life cycle In order to extend the church's life cycle new ideas and services must be continuously developed and initiated in order to stay relevant This relevancy leads to a strong brand for the church This book was developed with interviews and conversations with pastors and clergy from all walks of faith and from all areas of the United States Regardless of the denomination this book is designed to guide church leaders through the necessary steps in order to grow and market your church The Principal's Office Jan Irons Harris,2008-09-08 The Principal s Office is a practical book It is simple easy to read and packed with straightforward personal advice gleaned from years of real experience The current or future principal will receive words of wisdom from an author who knows what it is like to serve in the principal s office This primer addresses the concept of effective leadership in the principal s office with a holistic approach It is designed to help readers understand the four areas of our being spiritual physical intellectual and emotional From personal values and inspiration to clothing choices and exercise this book touches on all the topics essential to a healthy and successful turn as a principal When we understand these different areas along with the fundamental need to maintain balance in the four areas we are better equipped for success in the principal s office Hearing on the

Reauthorization of the Education of the Deaf Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Select Education,1992 This document presents testimony examining issues concerning the education of students with deafness and exploring ways to strengthen federal legislation to ensure an appropriate quality education for these students The hearing focuses specifically on reauthorization of the Education of the Deaf Act which authorizes funding for Gallaudet University Washington D C the National Technical Institute for the Deaf Rochester New York and model demonstration schools The act also created the Commission on Education of the Deaf which recommends improvements in the education of persons who are deaf or hard of hearing The testimony deals with early identification and intervention student placement communication skills parent involvement professional standards and other topics The document contains statements prepared statements letters and supplemental materials from 1 Congressional Representatives Major R Owens and Donald M Payne 2 the Assistant Secretary for Special Education and Rehabilitative Services of the Department of Education 3 representatives of the Commission on Education of the Deaf Gallaudet University and the National Technical Institute for the Deaf and 4 representatives from the Council of Organizational Representatives the National Association of State Directors of Special Education the Conference of Educational Administrators Serving the Deaf the National Association of the Deaf the American Society for Deaf Children the Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf the California Center for Law and the Deaf the City University of New York and the National Cued Speech Association JDD Congressional Record United States. Congress,1999 Resources in Education ,1998 International Handbook of Leadership for Learning Tony Townsend,John MacBeath,2011-07-10 The International Handbook of Leadership for Learning brings together chapters by distinguished authors from thirty one countries in nine different regions of the world The handbook contains nine sections that provide regional overviews a consideration of theoretical and contextual aspects system and policy approaches that promote leadership for learning with a focus on educating school leaders for learning and the role of the leader in supporting learning It also considers the challenge of educating current leaders for this new perspective and how leaders themselves can develop leadership for learning in others and in their organisations especially in diverse contexts and situations The final chapter considers what we now know about leadership for learning and looks at ways this might be further improved in the future The book provides the reader with an understanding of the rich contextual nature of learning in schools and the role of school leaders and leadership development in promoting this It concludes that the preposition for between the two readily known and understood terms of leadership and learning changes everything as it foregrounds learning and complexifies rather than simplifies what that word may mean Whereas common terms such as instructional leadership reduce learning to outcomes leadership for learning embraces a much wider developmental view of learning
