

Turabian Style Guidelines

This handout provides simple guidelines for using Turabian style. See A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate Turabian, in the Writing Lab for further instructions.

1. Title Page (sections 1.7, 14.18)
 - The title page presents the name of the university; the full title of the paper; the subtitle, if any; the course title; the date; and your name.
 - Please note that format for the title page may vary by instructor.
2. Margins (sections 14.2-14.3)
 - Use at least one-inch margins on all sides of all pages. All information should be within these margins.
3. Spacing (sections 3.5-4, 5.4, 14.4-14.5)
 - The text should be double-spaced, with the exception of block quotations, notes, captions, and long headings.
 - Indent the first line of a new paragraph by using the tab key.
 - Block quotations (quotes of two or more sentences that run to eight or more lines of text) are indented four spaces from the left margin and single-spaced. Quotation marks are not used in block quotations.
 - One space, not two (in other words, a regular word space), follows any mark of punctuation that ends a sentence: periods, question marks, and exclamation points.
4. Notes (sections 8.7-8.11, 8.15)
 - Use the endnote or footnote function of the word processor to create notes.
 - Use superscript for reference numbers in the text.
 - The reference numbers (followed by a period) in the notes themselves are normal size.
 - Number notes consecutively throughout the paper unless it is divided into chapters. In that case, numbering starts over with each new chapter.
 - A reference number in the text appears at the end of a sentence or clause. It will precede a dash but follow any other punctuation, including a parenthesis.
 - A note number usually follows a quotation.
 - Notes are single-spaced, with a blank line between notes.
 - 4a. Endnotes (sections 8.2, 14.38)
 - Endnotes appear at the end of a paper/article on a "Notes" page, after any appendices but before the bibliography.
 - Endnotes work best for tables, quoted poetry, and matters requiring special typography.
 - 4b. Footnotes (section 14.13)
 - Footnotes appear at the bottom of the page below a separator line.

David Boyle, Richard K. Fiese, Nancy Zava, 2004 The purpose of Preparing Graduate Papers in Music is to provide music students with some guidelines to assist in the preparation of theses essays dissertations and other papers that may be written as part of their graduate program This manual includes information and examples for preparing such papers and is designed specifically to assist students in writing about music and in documenting references to music music notation recordings and other musical resources It is intended to complement guidelines provided by a university's graduate office and the two style manuals most used by music students A Manual for Writers of Term Papers Theses and Dissertations Turabian 1996 and the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association APA 1994 A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, Seventh Edition Kate L. Turabian, 2009-08-14 Dewey Bellow Strauss Friedman The University of Chicago has been the home of some of the most important thinkers of the modern age But perhaps no name has been spoken with more respect than Turabian The dissertation secretary at Chicago for decades Kate Turabian literally wrote the book on the successful completion and submission of the student paper Her Manual for Writers of Research Papers Theses and Dissertations created from her years of experience with research projects across all fields has sold more than seven million copies since it was first published in 1937 Now with this seventh edition Turabian's Manual has undergone its most extensive revision ensuring that it will remain the most valuable handbook for writers at every level from first year undergraduates to dissertation writers apprehensively submitting final manuscripts to senior scholars who may be old hands at research and writing but less familiar with new media citation styles Gregory G Colomb Joseph M Williams and the late Wayne C Booth the gifted team behind The Craft of Research and the University of Chicago Press Editorial Staff combined their wide ranging expertise to remake this classic resource They preserve Turabian's clear and practical advice while fully embracing the new modes of research writing and source citation brought about by the age of the Internet Booth Colomb and Williams significantly expand the scope of previous editions by creating a guide generous in length and tone to the art of research and writing Growing out of the authors best selling Craft of Research this new section provides students with an overview of every step of the research and writing process from formulating the right questions to reading critically to building arguments and revising drafts This leads naturally to the second part of the Manual for Writers which offers an authoritative overview of citation practices in scholarly writing as well as detailed information on the two main citation styles notes bibliography and author date This section has been fully revised to reflect the recommendations of the fifteenth edition of The Chicago Manual of Style and to present an expanded array of source types and updated examples including guidance on citing electronic sources The final section of the book treats issues of style the details that go into making a strong paper Here writers will find advice on a wide range of topics including punctuation table formatting and use of quotations The appendix draws together everything writers need to know about formatting research papers theses and dissertations and preparing them for submission This material has been thoroughly vetted by dissertation officials at colleges and universities across the country This seventh edition of Turabian's Manual for Writers of Research Papers Theses and Dissertations is a classic reference revised for a new age It is tailored to a new generation of writers using tools its original author could not have imagined while retaining the clarity and authority that generations of scholars have come to associate with the name Turabian
