Bukowiecki, 2014-03-18 The Use of Literary Sources in Social Studies K 8 is a resource for teachers who wish to include varied literary genres in their social studies instruction along with a required social studies textbook The literature described and exemplified in this book includes fiction nonfiction biographies autobiographies historical fiction poetry fairy tales folktales tall tales and legends Throughout this book different instructional suggestions are presented for inclusion with varied social studies topics and literature sources Each chapter contains questions and pedagogical strategies for critically reading and responding to varied literary genres modifications to meet the needs of diverse learners assessment techniques information tied to technology and the new literacies and connections to the National Curriculum Standards for the Social Studies A Framework for Teaching Learning and Assessment 2010 and the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy in History Social studies Science and Technical Subjects 2010 The final chapter of this book describes the development and implementation of a classroom library for social studies teaching and learning Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant, Jill M. Gradwell, 2010-07-16 In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas Framing a teaching unit around a question such as Why don't we know anything about Africa offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter students and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring New York Magazine, 1990-07-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Resources in Education, 1999-04 History and Commerce of New York, 1891, 1891 Rural School Survey of New York State Joint Committee on Rural Schools, 1923 New York Court of Appeals. Singer, 2012-04-27 Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why It explains how to organize the curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes and student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters include lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps High school students responses are woven in throughout Additional material corresponding to each chapter is posted online at http://people.hofstra.edu/alan_j_singer The traditional curriculum tends to highlight the Western heritage and to race through epochs and regions leaving little time for an in depth exploration of concepts and historical themes for the evaluation of primary and secondary sources and for students to draw their own historical conclusions Offering an alternative to such pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it
