First to Care Graeme Hunt,2009 FIRST TO CARE 125 YEARS OF THE ORDER OF ST JOHN IN NEW ZEALAND 1885 2010 brings to life the history of one of our most ubiquitous and vital charitable organisations The heavily illustrated book provides a vivid account of public spiritedness enterprise and innovation by people involved in St John over the past 125 years peppered with occasional disputes and setbacks along the way St John invented and popularised first aid as we know it It provided medical assistance from the sidelines of our sports fields from as early as 1891 and it played a leading role in disaster relief from its formative days From humble beginnings it established a nationwide ambulance service that today is the envy of the St John fraternity worldwide OECD Environmental Performance Reviews: New Zealand 2007

OECD,2007-04-04 This review of New Zealand s environmental conditions and policies evaluates progress in reducing the pollution burden improving natural resource management integrating environmental and economic policies and strengthening international co operation The Fabric of Welfare Margaret Tennant,2007 Throughout history the welfare of the people has been a contested area Is it the responsibility of the state The churches The extended family Organised charities or informal community groups The Fabric of Welfare is about the many points of contact between voluntary welfare and government social services and the complex pattern woven by these different threads The country's welfare history is shaped by its colonial past with the predominantly British influences transmitted by an immigrant society in the nineteenth century by its Maori population with a strong communal ethos by the shaping forces of the welfare state by two world wars and economic depression and by both free market policies and rapid social change in recent years In tracing the interdependence of state and voluntary provision of welfare from 1840 to 2005 Margaret Tennant offers new perspectives on New Zealand social history This is a rigorous analysis but it is also a history illuminated by people The text is illustrated with stories about the people who were moved to save to reform to care to support and the people who needed that essential sustenance From the nun who sees a distraught woman about to throw her child into the sea and sets out to care for foundlings to city missionaries community minded public servants businessmen philanthropists and the entrepreneurial organisers of floral fetes and telethons these accounts tell us much about the history of welfare in all its interconnections
