Ożańska-Ponikwia, 2014-09-26 This book addresses a particularly important area of second language acquisition research specifically the factors that mediate learning outcomes in learning a second or foreign language It provides a comprehensive up to date overview of studies in the field of second language learning and L2 use from the point of view of personality traits and emotional intelligence It also presents results of a mixed method study researching the possible influence of these variables on the process of learning a second language Furthermore the book represents the first systematic exploration of the role of emotional intelligence and the factors related to it in moderating attainment in the target language What is also unique here is the investigation of the role of personality with respect to different target language skills and subsystems which allows finer grained insights into this relationship The book will be of considerable interest to both researchers teachers and students in the fields of SLA TESOL applied linguistics and bilingualism Multidisciplinary Approaches to Bilingualism in the Hispanic and Lusophone World Kate Bellamy, Michael W. Child, Paz González, Antje Muntendam, M. Carmen Parafita Couto, 2017-05-31 This volume offers a multidisciplinary view of cutting edge research on bilingualism in Spanish and Portuguese speaking regions with the aim of building a bridge between sub fields and approaches that often find themselves isolated from one another The thirteen contributions in this volume offer a glimpse of the diversity of bilingualism present in the Hispanic and Lusophone world shedding light on the sheer variety of speaker communities language pairings e g Spanish English Spanish Basque Spanish Dutch Portuguese Spanish English Portuguese English Spanish Kichee Maya and Spanish Ixcatec and speaker types e g simultaneous bilinguals and early and late sequential bilinguals The diversity present in this collection of papers both in empirical coverage and methodological and theoretical approaches will be of interest to a wide range of students and researchers in bilingualism and Hispanic and Lusophone linguistics A Parametric Study of Language Training in the Peace Corps Harvard University. Laboratory for Research in Instruction, John Bissell Carroll, 1966

The Language Question in Europe and Diverse Societies Dario Castiglione, Christopher Longman, 2007-03-12 Recent developments in the European integration process have raised amongst many other things the issue of linguistic diversity for some a stumbling block to the creation of a European democratic polity and its legal and social institutions The solution to the question of language involves an understanding of the role played by natural languages and the consequent design of policies and institutional mechanisms to facilitate inter linguistic and intercultural communication This is not an exclusively European problem and nor is it entirely new for it is also the problem of linguistic majorities and minorities within unitary nation states However the effects of globalization and the diffusion of multiculturalism within nation states have given renewed emphasis to the question of language in diverse societies Facing the question anew involves reconsidering traditional ideas about social communication and the public sphere about opinion formation and diffusion about the protection of cultural and linguistic minorities and about the role that language plays in the process of formation of political and legal cultures This volume is intended as a multidisciplinary contribution towards studying and assessing the range of problems that form the language question in Europe and diverse societies Willard and Spackman's Occupational Therapy Barbara A. Schell, Glen Gillen, Marjorie Scaffa, Ellen S. Cohn, 2013-03-08 Willard and Spackman's Occupational Therapy Twelfth Edition continues in the tradition of excellent coverage of critical concepts and practices that have long made this text the leading resource for Occupational Therapy students Students using this text will learn how to apply client centered occupational evidence based approach across the full spectrum of practice settings Peppared with first person narratives which offer a unique perspective on the lives of those living with disease this new edition has been fully updated with a visually enticing full color design and even more photos and illustrations Vital pedagogical features including case studies Practice Dilemmas and Provocative questions help position students in the real world of occupational therapy practice to help prepare them to react appropriately Manual of Pediatric Balance Disorders, Second Edition Robert C.

Corrective feedback is a vital pedagogical tool in language learning This is the first volume to provide an in depth analysis and discussion of the role of corrective feedback in second and foreign language learning and teaching Written by leading scholars it assembles cutting edge research and state of the art articles that address recent developments in core areas of corrective feedback including oral written computer mediated nonverbal and peer feedback The chapters are a combination of both theme based and original empirical studies carried out in diverse second and foreign language contexts Each chapter provides a concise review of its own topic discusses theoretical and empirical issues not adequately addressed before and identifies their implications for classroom instruction and future research It will be an essential resource for all those interested in the role of corrective feedback in second and foreign language learning and how they can be used to enhance classroom teaching Heritage Languages at the Crossroads: Cultural Contexts, Individual Differences, and Methodologies Brechje Antonet Van Osch,Alicia Luque,Jason Rothman,Selim Tiryakiol,Nadine Kolb,2025-02-10 This Research Topic focuses on heritage languages at the crossroads by approaching heritage language bilingualism in an interdisciplinary way A language qualifies as a heritage language if it is a minority language spoken at home in a majority language context Any language can be the societal majority language in one context and the heritage language in another While the number of empirical studies on language acquisition and processing in heritage language bilingualism has increased in recent years heritage language bilinguals are an understudied subgroup of bilinguals When examined as adults heritage speaker bilinguals tend to show significant differences in their heritage language performance use and competence grammatical knowledge from one another This variation is particularly unusual because heritage speakers like monolinguals are native speakers of the heritage language
