appetites older than memory Voices from beyond warn of predators wearing familiar faces walking unnoticed among the living In mahogany paneled offices legal documents demand settlements no court would recognize Restaurants serve delicacies harvested from realms that exist between heartbeats Schools harbor paintings that collect souls through gilded frames each brushstroke a trap centuries in the making Here con artists awaken genuine darkness through fake cleansings Conductors guide passengers who never truly disembark Critics taste transformations that alter more than palates Buildings market themselves to prey whose desperation makes them perfect vessels for consumption Twenty one chronicles of corruption where the veil wears thin where ordinary lives intersect with extraordinary horror where every choice echoes through eternity Some knowledge extracts tolls that compound across lifetimes Some thresholds once crossed dissolve behind you Some hungers once awakened never sleep again This Halloween Gabriel De Doncker unveils twenty one forgotten files from hidden archives of urban macabre testimonies of those who glimpsed what lurks beneath civilization's fragile veneer Each tale a warning Each page a portal Each word a whisper from shadows that grow longer with every passing moment But beware the shallow virtues of Curiosity It opens doors that should remain sealed It speaks of names that should stay unheard It turns pages that are meant to remain forever closed The question isn't whether you dare to read It's whether you'll recognize the darkness when it follows you home X
