

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Dailyn Foster, a 12th grade student at Renaissance High School who will be graduating in the spring of 2010. Dailyn has been a very good student that has maintained a 3.3 G.P.A. and scored a 22 on her ACT exam.

Dailyn has been involved in many meaningful extra-curricular activities which include Earth Tomorrow, a school club that focuses on keeping the Earth a safe place and partnerships with other organizations that do similar things. She has also been a member of Students-Against Destructive Decisions, an organization that focuses on teenagers making healthy decisions in each area of their lives. She participated in a Diversity Club that focuses on people of different cultures and ethnicities living and working together. She has also done community service with Delsprite, which includes visiting disadvantaged children, the elderly, and feeding homeless people. She has also been a member of ROTC, is the Parliamentarian of DECA, and a member of the Spanish National Honor Society.

Dailyn is also a very creative thinker that has exceptional critical thinking skills. Although she has been a very good student, her discussion skills, as well as leadership skills are exceptional and will make her very good in the career she chooses. I highly recommend Dailyn to be admitted into Howard University. She is a good student and exceptional person that represents our school well, and will represent herself and the University she attends well in the future.

Sincerely,

Mitchell Bradley

How parents have been set up to fail and why helping them succeed is the key to achieving a fair and prosperous society Few people realize that raising children is the single largest industry in the United States Yet this vital work receives little political support and its primary workers parents labor in isolation If they ask for help they are made to feel inadequate there is no centralized organization to represent their interests and there is virtually nothing spent on research and development to help them achieve their goals It's almost as if parents are set up to fail and the result is lost opportunities that limit children's success and make us all worse off In The Parent Trap Nate Hilger combines cutting edge social science research revealing historical case studies and on the ground investigation to recast parenting as the hidden crucible of inequality Parents are expected not only to care for their children but to help them develop the skills they will need to thrive in today's socioeconomic reality but most parents including even the most caring parents on the planet are not trained in skill development and lack the resources to get help How do we fix this The solution Hilger argues is to ask less of parents not more America should consider child development a public investment with a monumental payoff We need a program like Medicare call it Familycare to drive this investment To make it happen parents need to organize to wield their political power on behalf of children who will always be the largest bloc of disenfranchised people in this country The Parent Trap exposes the true costs of our society's unrealistic expectations around parenting and lays out a profoundly hopeful blueprint for reform Resources in Education, 2001-04 Treating Somatic Symptoms in Children and Adolescents Sara E.
