Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Hiring Manager's Name],

When I learned of your requirement for an experienced and enthusiastic Baseball coach, I hastened to write this letter and submit my resume for your perusal. As a supportive and highly motivated professional with more than 12 years of solid experience in coaching a variety of players, from small boys/girls to senior-level players, I am confident that I would strongly be an asset to your team in this capacity. Currently, I am coaching for the (team name), and my work includes – providing successful training, coaching, motivating, and supervising the players and helping them meet the physical and mental needs of the game. From organizing drills to demonstrating to them the correct technique of playing the game, and coordinating logistics, I excel in this position. In addition, my communication skills, along with my motivational and outstanding coaching skills, are certain to render me a significant benefit to your players. Here are some of my accomplishments as a Baseball Coach –

- In my career, I have produced more than 50 times winning results for the team I am coaching, and this happened in just the past 3 years
- I ensure that each player gets a fair opportunity to demonstrate his/her talent on the field
- Well-versed in developing and executing baseball strategies after analysing the opponent's team play within 10 minutes
- Developed a special pitching plan that helped the players to reach their fullest
- Motivating skills prove to be useful for players, even while they are midway without many scores
- I am highly experienced in mentoring young boys and girls, and I can very easily inspire them and boost their confidence level in the field

Apart from being a professional baseball player, I am proficient in understanding the physical and emotional demands of the game and can guide my team accordingly. My experience lies in establishing and managing a positive team spirit while giving constructive feedback to players. Using my knowledge of the game, coupled with my passion for developing skills among my players, I believe that I will be an encouraging contributor to your team as your next Baseball Coach. I strongly believe that my wealth of experience and talent can be put into practicality as I join as your next Baseball Coach. I look forward to discussing my qualifications further in an interview. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

Thornton, 2010-02-04 Sports Law looks at major court cases, statutes, and regulations that explore a variety of legal issues in the sports industry. The early chapters provide an overview of sports law in general terms and explore its impact on race, politics, religion, and everyday affairs. Later chapters address hot button issues such as gender equity, drug testing, and discrimination. Written from a sport management perspective rather than from a lawyer's, this text covers all the major areas presented in sports law today, including cases relating to torts, contracts, intellectual property, and agents. Factual scenarios throughout the text allow students to critically examine and apply sport management principles to legal issues facing the sports executive. Their vast experience recruiting, coaching, and playing the game provides them with the tactical insights every player needs to succeed. The competition for athletic scholarships is fierce, and the process is intense. Angeron and Gamble work with athletes from a young age to help them make the right choices to develop their talents, playing baseball, excel in academics, and connect with the right people who will help them secure their futures. Working together, they've put their best advice together in one place. The topics covered in their book include Eligibility, recruiting rules, Tips for academic success, Campus visits, Social media success, tips, risks, Baseball camps, showcases, teams, Financial considerations, Common myths about college baseball success. Both authors have experience playing college baseball, with Angeron having gone on to coach and Gamble to play professional baseball. Both have also worked as Major League Baseball scouts.
