Dear Name of Head of Admission Committee:

I am very happy to announce that I will be providing full financial support for my nephew Name during his course at university starting on [Date].

The cost of tuition is about $10,000 per semester so it's important we're able to keep this up! My bank statement from Bank shows how much money has been set aside each month until graduation in two-year's time which should enough given our current economic climate

I hope you'll agree with me when we say: "deposited into an account"

Sincerely,

[Signature of Family Member]

The Army Lawyer, 1987 Raza SÍ, Migra No Jimmy Patiño, 2017-10-18 As immigration from Mexico to the United States grew through the 1970s and 1980s the Border Patrol police and other state agents exerted increasing violence against ethnic Mexicans in San Diego's volatile border region In response many San Diego activists rallied around the leadership of the small scale print shop owner Herman Baca in the Chicano movement to empower Mexican Americans through Chicano self determination The combination of increasing repression and Chicano activism gradually produced a new conception of ethnic and racial community that included both established Mexican Americans and new Mexican immigrants Here Jimmy Patiño narrates the rise of this Chicano Mexicano consciousness and the dawning awareness that Mexican Americans and Mexicans would have to work together to fight border enforcement policies that subjected Latinos of all statuses to legal violence By placing the Chicano and Latino civil rights struggle on explicitly transnational terrain Patiño fundamentally reorients the understanding of the Chicano movement Ultimately Patiño tells the story of how Chicano Mexicano politics articulated an abolitionist position on immigration going beyond the agreed upon assumptions shared by liberals and conservatives alike that deportations are inherent to any solutions to the still burgeoning immigration debate

Women and the British Army, 1815-1880 Lynn MacKay, 2023 This book explores the world of women who married or dealt with British soldiers below the rank of officer during the nineteenth century including fiancées wives mothers sisters and daughters as well as the prostitutes they consorted with It examines women's experiences over the time cycle of a soldier's service It considers women's finances how they struggled to make ends meet and how they appealed to the government for support including in widowhood and after a soldier's service had been completed. It discusses how soldiers' women were viewed in the press, in literature, and in society, more widely highlighting in particular issues concerning morality and independence and outlines how the Crimean War and its aftermath brought about extensive army reforms and also a sharp revision of the reputation of soldiers' wives. The book includes an exploration of soldiers' relations with prostitutes and how prostitutes were regulated and a consideration of the impact on soldiers' wives of physical arrangements such as barracks and overall provides much insight into the nature of plebeian life in the nineteenth century. The women portrayed often emerge as exceptionally resolute, independent, and canny. Letters, Kinship, and Social Mobility in Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan, 2023-08-15 In 2003 Olufemi Vaughan received from his ninety-five-year-old father Abiodun a trove of more than 3 000 letters written by four generations of his family in Ibadan, Nigeria, between 1926 to 1994. The men and women who wrote these letters had emerged from the religious, social, and educational institutions established by the Church Missionary Society, the preeminent Anglican mission in the Atlantic Nigerian region following the imposition of British colonial rule. Abiodun, recruited to be a civil servant in the colonial administration, became the patriarch of a prominent family with historical roots in both West Africa and the Americas; his family was the subject of articles in Ebony and Jet as well as in acclaimed histories. Reading deeply in these letters, Olufemi realized he had a unique set of sources that could be used to illuminate everyday life for this important segment of Nigerian society. Letter writing was a dominant form of communication for western-educated elites in colonial Africa, especially in Nigeria. Exposure and an altruistic sense of nationalism were among the factors that led people to begin exchanging letters, particularly in their interactions with British colonial authorities. Through careful textual analysis and broad contextualization, Vaughan reconstructs dominant storylines, including themes such as people's relationships with colonial authorities and bureaucracy, ideas about faith and kinship, nationalism, and communal development. Vaughan brings his prodigious skills as a historian to bear on this wealth of information, bringing to life a portrait at once intimate and expansive of a community during a transformative period in African history. Families Caring Across Borders Loretta Baldassar, Cora Vellekoop, Baldock, Raelene Wilding, 2006-11-28 This is an ethnographic account of the transnational caregiving experiences and practices of Australian migrants and refugees caring for their elderly parents in Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and New Zealand. It describes how people respond to unprecedented mobility, both voluntary and forced, globalized job markets, and an ageing population. Resources in Education, 2001-04 A woman's place? Ciara Meehan, 2023-02-28 This book explores representations of the domestic in Irish women's magazines. Published in the 1960s, Ireland, during a period of transformation, they served as modern manuals for navigating everyday life. Traditional themes, dating, marriage, and motherhood, dominated. But editors also introduced conflicting voices to complicate the narrative. Readers were prompted to reimagine their home life, and traditional values were carefully subverted. The domestic was shown to be a negotiable concept in the coverage of such issues as the body and reproductive rights, working wives, and equal pay.

Dominant societal perceptions of women were also challenged through the inclusion of those who were on the margins widows unmarried mothers and never married women This book considers the motivations of editors the role of readers and the influence of advertisers in shaping complex debates about women in society in 1960s Ireland Psychosocial Advances in Neuro-Oncology Tamara Ownsworth, Suzanne Chambers, Haryana Dhillon, 2016-02-12 Neuro oncology is a rapidly growing field concerned with scientific developments and clinical applications related to neuroscience neuropsychology cancer and oncology Neuro oncological disorders include cancers that directly affect the central nervous system CNS such as brain tumours and brain metastases and non CNS cancers with treatments that produce neurocognitive impairment To date the biological mechanisms and neuropsychological effects of brain tumour and cancer have been the dominant focus in neuro oncology literature In terms of psychosocial aspects of care people s understanding of their diagnosis and symptoms and how they cope with their illness has a major influence on their emotional well being and quality of life The development and evaluation of psychological and supportive care interventions for people with brain tumour is an area of emerging research and of high interest to health professionals working in the field This Research Topic aims to enhance understanding of the psychological and social consequences of brain tumour and other cancers impacting neurocognitive function It also aims to showcase new developments in assessment and psychosocial intervention approaches Wife Rape Raquel Kennedy Bergen, 1996-05-21 In our 20 years of campaigning to change the laws in 50 states women often called to report their neglect by local agencies Now with the power given these women by Dr Bergen s excellent definitive documentation neither this issue nor these people can be neglected Laura X National Clearinghouse on Marital and Date Rape Raquel Kennedy Bergen s impressive study challenges us to look seriously at a form of violence that has been largely ignored by researchers and practitioners alike Wife Rape deepens our understanding of the devastating experience of marital rape Further the study illuminates the problems practitioners and activists face as they confront wife rape Bergen s important study promises to reopen the topic of wife rape This book should be read by everyone involved in domestic violence research and intervention Kersti Yll Ph D Department of Sociology and Anthropology Wheaton College Massachusetts Attending to a subject long neglected by research and popular spheres author Raquel Kennedy Bergen addresses the deep pain and humiliation of sexual assault suffered by countless numbers of women at the hands of their partners Wife Rape lends voice to the personal testimonies of survivors and contrasts these stories with interviews of service providers illustrating the lack of validation and insufficient assistance currently available to wife rape survivors Offering insight and hope to survivors and providing critical information to service providers this valuable volume helps readers better understand wife rape and the response of agencies to the problem In addition a special guide to service providers a state law chart and a list of organizations that provide information on rape make this book an important resource Offering an essential check on the reality of Wife Rape this timely and accessibly written volume is excellent reading for researchers practitioners policymakers police officers religious leaders students clients and all those who would like to become better informed about this issue La Raza, 1972 Poverty and Sickness in Modern Europe Andreas Gestrich, Elizabeth Hurren, Steven King, 2012-06-28 This book provides a genuinely pan European analysis of pauper narratives focusing on the experiences of the sick poor in England France Germany Ireland Luxembourg Scotland Spain Sweden Switzerland and Wales The contributions highlight the value of pauper narratives for exploring the agency rhetoric and experiences of the poor and sick poor significantly enhancing our understanding of the ways in which national and regional welfare systems operated By foregrounding the particular experiences and strategies of the sick poor this volume helps to establish and understand the central sentiments of the relief system and the core experiences of those under its care What emerges is a demonstration that how a relief system treated its sick poor and how those sick poor were able to navigate the system tells us more about welfare history than analysis of any other group

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1995 The Roman Mourner Valerie M. Hope, 2025-06-12 To date mourning has not featured prominently in studies of ancient Roman society and this book redresses this by presenting a comprehensive analysis of who mourners were and what mourners did as well as investigating the social cultural and ritual significance of mourning It brings together varied evidence ranging from literature and art to epigraphy which helps to illustrate the rituals of mourning Valerie M Hope addresses fundamental questions about how mourning was expressed displayed performed and experienced via the body and in turn what mourning can reveal about Roman society In previous literature on the topic roles played by mourners in funeral rituals and commemorative acts may be acknowledged but there has been little engagement with the varied emotional and physical behaviours of mourners When mourning has been considered the emphasis has predominantly fallen on gender and specific literary genres There have hitherto been few attempts to unite the diverse evidence for Roman mourning to consider different literary genres simultaneously or to evaluate how mourning was presented through material culture The evaluation of social expectations legal regulations and idealised roles across a diverse evidence base and time frame make this volume the first full and systematic study of mourning in the Roman world Statement of Information United States. Judiciary, 1974 Gordon Matta-Clark Gordon Matta-Clark, 2022-10-25 An essential reference that provides new understanding of the thought processes of one of the most radical artists of the late twentieth century Gordon Matta Clark 1943 1978 has never been an easy artist to categorize or to explain Although trained as an architect he has been described as a sculptor a photographer an organizer of performances and a writer of manifestos but he is best known for un building abandoned structures In the brief span of his career from 1968 to his early death in 1978 he created an oeuvre that has made him an enduring cult figure In 2002 when Gordon Matta Clark s widow Jane Crawford put his archive on deposit at the Canadian Centre for Architecture in Montreal it revealed a new voice in the ongoing discussion of artist architect Matta Clark s work his own Gwendolyn Owens and Philip Ursprung s careful selection and ordering of letters interviews statements and the now famous art cards from the CCA as well as other sources deepens our understanding of one of the most original thinkers of his generation Gordon Matta Clark An Archival Sourcebook creates a multidimensional portrait that provides an opportunity for readers to explore and enjoy the complexity and contradiction that was Gordon Matta Clark

Nothing to Write Home About Laura Ishiguro, 2019-05-01 In the context of surging interests in reconciliation and decolonization settler colonialism increasingly occupies political public and academic conversations Nothing to Write Home About is a detailed study of the settler colonial significance of British family correspondence sent between the United Kingdom and British Columbia between 1858 and 1914 Drawing on thousands of letters written by dozens of correspondents it offers insights into epistolary topics including trans imperial family intimacy and conflict settlers everyday concerns such as boredom and food and the importance of what correspondents chose not to write about Analyzing both the letters content and their conspicuous loaded silences Laura Ishiguro traces how Britons used the post to navigate the family separations integral to their migration and to understand British Columbia as an uncontested settler home This book argues that these letters and their writers played a critical role in laying the foundations of a powerful personal settler colonial order that continues to structure the province today

Letters From the Clinic Derek Steinberg, 2003-09-02 In every field of therapeutic practice a significant amount of time is spent writing letters about and to patients In Letters From the Clinic Derek Steinberg applies detailed literary and psychological analysis to over 40 letters highlighting why certain words or phrases were used how they could have been put better and builds around them principles and theoretical positions based on narrative therapy consultative approaches and the psychological impact of words and phrases Using the context of child adolescent and family psychiatry while also applicable to all therapeutic work the book deals with issues such as explaining clinical conditions and treatments confirming clinical contracts conveying difficult advice and painful news missed appointments and other practicalities Each letter is followed by detailed annotations and discussion Letters From the Clinic will prove a valuable tool to all those working in clinical and therapeutic practice

Migration and Transformation: Pirkko Pitkänen, Ahmet İçduygu, Deniz Sert, 2012-04-14 People s transnational ties and activities are acquiring ever greater importance and topicality in today s world The focus of this book lies in the complex and multi level processes of migrant transnationalism in four transnational spaces India UK Morocco France and Turkey Germany and Estonia Finland The main question is how people s activities across national borders emerge function and change and how are they related to the processes of governance in increasingly complex and interconnected world The book is based on the findings of a three year research project TRANS NET which brought together internationally acknowledged experts from Europe Asia and Africa As no single discipline could investigate all the components of the topic in question the project adopted a multi disciplinary approach among the contributors there are sociologists policy analysts political scientists social and cultural anthropologists educational scientists and economists The chapters show that people s transnational linkages and migration across national boundaries entail manifold political economic social cultural and educational implications Although political social economic educational transformations fostered by migrant transnationalism constitute the main topic of the book the starting assumption is that the large scale institutional and actor centred patterns of transformation come about through a constellation of parallel processes     Dictionary of Paul and His Letters InterVarsity Press,2023-04-11 In this thoroughly revised and updated edition of a classic reference work topics like Christology justification and hermeneutics receive careful treatment by trusted specialists New topics like politics patronage and different cultural perspectives expand the volume s breadth and usefulness for scholars pastors and students today
