Obsessed Part Three The Obsessed Series Book English Edition:

Prophets Facing Backward Meera Nanda, 2003 The leading voices in science studies have argued that modern science reflects dominant social interests of Western society Following this logic postmodern scholars have urged postcolonial societies to develop their own alternative sciences as a step towards mental decolonization These ideas have found a warm welcome among Hindu nationalists who came to power in India in the early 1990s In this passionate and highly original study Indian born author Meera Nanda reveals how these well meaning but ultimately misguided ideas are enabling Hindu ideologues to propagate religious myths in the guise of science and secularism At the heart of Hindu supremacist ideology Nanda argues lies a postmodernist assumption that each society has its own norms of reasonableness logic rules of evidence and conception of truth and that there is no non arbitrary culture independent way to choose among these alternatives What is being celebrated as difference by postmodernists however has more often than not been the source of mental bondage and authoritarianism in non Western cultures The Vedic sciences currently endorsed in Indian schools colleges and the mass media promotes the same elements of orthodox Hinduism that have for centuries deprived the vast majority of Indian people of their full humanity By denouncing science and secularization the left was unwittingly contributing to what Nanda calls reactionary modernism In contrast Nanda points to the Dalit or untouchable movement as a true example of an alternative science that has embraced reason and modern science to challenge traditional notions of hierarchy

Anderson,2025-02-28 The common practice of ability grouped reading in UK schools often termed guided reading influences children s sense of identity feelings and progress as readers Drawing on a rich ethnographic study of three primary classrooms this book reopens a critical inquiry into ability grouped reading that has been quiet since the 1990s when guided reading in literacy education became established practice in the UK and the US Through the lens of children s agency in accommodating resisting and at times transforming such reading pedagogy the book shows how readers are shaped by ability grouped reading and by the more egalitarian reading pedagogies introduced in the study Children s individual and collective experiences are brought to life through extended narratives that attend as closely to gesture posture visage silences and prosody of speech as to spoken words The book ends with a provocation how literacy pedagogy might change if reflexive noticing and dismantling of hierarchies become the compass of pedagogical change This demands attention to structural inequalities around race gender and class and a turn towards deep listening to children As well as being a valuable read for scholars of the sociology of childhood and education it should appeal to anyone concerned with making education more equitable including teachers school leaders parents carers and policymakers Blanks, Print, Space, and Void in

English Renaissance Literature Jonathan Sawday, 2023-06-20 Blanks Print Space and Void in English Renaissance Literature is an inquiry into the empty spaces encountered not just on the pages of printed books in c 1500 1700 but in Renaissance culture more generally The book argues that print culture in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries helped to foster the modern idea of the gap where words texts images and ideas are constructed as missing lost withheld fragmented or perhaps never devised in the first place It re imagines how early modern people reacted not just to printed books and documents of many different kinds but also how the very idea of emptiness or absence began to be fashioned in a way which still surrounds us Jonathan Sawday leads the reader through the entire landscape of early modern print culture discussing topics such as space and silence the exploration of the vacuum the ways in which race and racial identity in early modern England were constructed by the language and technology of print blackness and whiteness together with lightness darkness and sightlessness cartography and emptiness the effect of typography on reading practices the social spaces of the page gendered surfaces hierarchies of information books of memory pages constructed as waste or vacant the genesis of blank forms and early modern bureaucracy the political and devotional spaces of printed books the impact of censorship and the problem posed by texts which lack endings or conclusions The book itself ends by dwelling on blank or empty pages as a sign of human mortality Sawday pays close attention to the writings of many of the familiar figures in English Renaissance literary culture Sidney Shakespeare Donne Jonson and Milton for example as well as introducing readers to a host of lesser known figures The book also discusses the work of numerous women writers from the period including Aphra Behn Ann Bradstreet Margaret Cavendish Lady Jane Gray Lucy Hutchinson melia Lanyer Isabella Whitney and Lady Mary Wroth
