Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements , 2020-04-28 In Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements Arguments from the Margins Rocha Hutchinson and Openshaw argue that Australia has made and still makes important contributions to how Pentecostal and charismatic Christianities have developed worldwide This edited volume fills a critical gap in two important scholarly literatures The first is the Australian literature on religion in which the absence of the charismatic and Pentecostal element tends to reinforce now widely debunked notions of Australia as lacking the religious tendencies of old Europe The second is the emerging transnational literature on Pentecostal and Charismatic movements This book enriches our understanding not only of how these movements spread worldwide but also how they are indigenised and grow new shoots in very diverse contexts

When Oceans Roar Ernest F Crocker, 2016-10-07 When Oceans Roar tells the remarkable stories of people who heard the still small voice of God and saw God do amazing things when they took God at his word and surrendered themselves to him The stories told in this book represent roads that few people would have chosen Yet having said yes to God and taken the first step each one was strengthened empowered and equipped for the journey ahead It includes the story of a couple who prayed over their child who had no heart beat for three days in the sure knowledge that God would meet them at their point of need and of a Bangladeshi freedom fighter taken before a firing squad only to learn that God had a plan for his life This is a book that will challenge you to find your true identity and having done so to step out of complacency and take risks in the sure knowledge that God will never leave you or forsake you as you surrender yourself to him Be inspired to listen out for the still small voice of God above the ocean's roar

Preaching and Music Catherine E. Williams, 2025-03-31 In the current conversation around what makes preaching compelling Williams voice is distinct compelling sermons allow music to do its share of the preaching as only music can Whether through musically book ending the sermon drawing on popular music for illustrations or turning a hymn into a series of mini sermons this volume explores several accessible ways to enrich sermon preparation and delivery by partnering sermon and song Williams is a worthy guide with degrees in both church music and homiletics and with sensitivity drawn from her pastoral background With insightful clarity and practiced wisdom she engages both preachers and musicians in each chapter This book is a rich resource for the homiletician's syllabus the preacher's bookshelf and the music minister's library

T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God's glory Several chapters have been co-written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality 2016 Greatest Christian Hits Carol
