Representation of Evil Lynne Fallwell, Keira V. Williams, 2016-07-28 This edited collection examines gendered representations of evil in history the arts and literature Scholars often explore the relationships between gender sex and violence through theories of inequality violence against women and female victimization but what happens when women are the perpetrators of violent or harmful behavior How do we define evil What makes evil men seem different from evil women When women commit acts of violence or harmful behavior how are they represented differently from men How do perceptions of class race and age influence these representations How have these representations changed over time and why What purposes have gendered representations of evil served in culture and history What is the relationship between gender punishment of evil behavior and equality Reconstructing Gender Estelle Disch, 2006 This anthology focuses on women and men in the United States and the multiple identities that comprise the lives of individuals across gender Drawing from a wide range of sources including research articles essays and personal narratives Disch has chosen accessible engaging and provocative readings that represent a plurality of perspectives and experiences By providing this multidimensional view Disch helps students see how gender operates across numerous categories including race sexual orientation class age and disability Back cover Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition

Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politics of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice Gender in Communication Catherine Helen Palczewski, Danielle D. McGeough, Victoria Pruin DeFrancisco, 2023-01-12 Gender in Communication A Critical Introduction embraces the full range of diverse gender identities and expressions to explore how gender influences communication as well as how communication shapes our concepts of gender for the individual and for society at large Authors Catherine Helen Palczewski Danielle D McGeough and Victoria Pruin DeFrancisco equip readers with the critical analysis tools to form their own conclusions about the ever changing processes of gender in communication This comprehensive gender communication book is the first to extensively address the roles of religion the gendered body single sex education an institutional analysis of gender construction social construction theory and more The Fourth Edition has streamlined the text to make it more accessible to students without sacrificing the sophistication of the book s trademark intersectional approach

Matricentric Feminism Andrea O'Reilly, 2016-10-01 The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face social economic political cultural psychological and so forth are specific to women s role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice The chapter on maternal theory examines the central theoretical concepts of maternal scholarship while the chapter on activism considers the twenty first century motherhood movement Feminist mothering is likewise examined as the specific practice of matricentric feminism and this chapter discusses various theories and strategies on and for maternal empowerment Matricentric feminism is also examined in relation to the larger field of academic feminism here O Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed

The Gender Knot Allan Johnson, 2014-10-19 New Third Edition The Gender Knot Allan Johnson s response to the pain and confusion that men and women experience by living with gender inequality explains what patriarchy is and isn t how it works and what gets in the way of understanding and doing something about it Johnson s simple yet powerful approach avoids the paralyzing trap of guilt blame anger and defensive denial that often results from conversations about gender This edition features Updated references data resources and examples especially in relation to issues of sexual orientation and gender identity e g gay marriage transgender cisgender A glossary of terms A new chapter What Changes and What Does Not Manhood and Violence that provides an extended analysis of the causes of men s violence as a patriarchal phenomenon

Interracial Communication Mark P. Orbe, Tina M. Harris, 2022-11-11 As the racial and ethnic landscape of the United States shifts interracial communication plays an increasingly crucial role The sociopolitical climate has impacted identities relationships media and organizations challenging the possibility of having transformative engagement about race Power differences affected by race ethnicity class gender sexuality ability age and geography are sometimes invisible Competent interracial communication is key to alleviating polarized interactions and addressing the unequal treatment of microcultures Part I of the book provides essential background including the history of race the importance of communication the development and intersectionality of racial and ethnic identities and models and theories of interracial communication Part II applies this information to communication practices in specific everyday contexts global racial hierarchies and colorism friendships romantic relationships communication in the workplace interracial conflict and race and ethnicity in the media The concluding chapter outlines pathways to meaningful change and invites readers to become active participants in dialogue to facilitate working through differences The authors offer comprehensive readable and insightful coverage of pressing issues They focus on communication as vital to removing barriers to understanding Becoming proactive in eliminating racism on a personal level is a step toward the macrolevel changes required to dismantle systemic racism The fourth edition is a socially relevant resource for facilitating interracial dialogue to create a positive climate to work together to achieve social justice
