United We Serve E. J. Dionne, Kayla Meltzer Drogosz, Robert E. Litan, 2004-05-26 Public rhetoric in the United States has always laid heavy stress on the obligations of citizenship Bill Clinton praised the idea of service and so does George W Bush Since September 11 the debate over service and the obligations of citizenship has become even more urgent United We Serve gathers many diverse voices on civic life and civic obligation to explore the idea of national service as it relates to citizenship Activists and practitioners discuss the rise of the service movement its practical successes and its challenges Policymakers and political leaders explore the links between service and problem solving Political scientists and philosophers connect the service debate to larger concerns about democratic participation The book also includes a lively debate over whether the U S should reconsider compulsory national service The discussion about service is a debate over how Americans think of themselves and their nation and about what the new patriotism means Contributors include Daniel Blumenthal Harry Boyte John M Bridgeland Louis Caldera Bruce Chapman former President Bill Clinton Charles Cobb Jr Jane Eisner Jean Bethke Elshtain William Galston Stephen Goldsmith Robert D Haas Stephen Hess Peter D Hart and Mario A Brossard Alan Khazei John Lehman Leslie Lenkowsky Paul C Light Michael Lind Tod Lindberg Will Marshall and Marc Magee Senator John McCain Charles Moskos Robert Putnam Representative Charles Rangel Alice M Rivlin Michael Schudson Mark Shields Carmen Sirianni Theda Skocpol Andrew L Stern Jeff Swartz Steven Waldman Caspar Weinberger David Winston Harris Wofford and Robert Wuthnow

A Year of PR Dr. George Ash, 2016-03-29 A Year of PR A Collection from an Educational Service Center is unlike any other public relations book for schools It offers a year s worth of press releases involving real schools their students faculty and administrators and covers a plethora of topics from general operations and building upgrades to fund raising and human interest features all of which aim to inspire principals and superintendents to write and share their own positive public relations With so much media coverage these days focusing on school violence troubled youth and funding issues the general public may not be aware of all the good things happening within their local schools walls Students are working hard to surpass academic goals perform athletic feats embrace new technology and help others making the world a better place Take a page from A Year of PR and highlight your own school district with a smart press release plan Let the community know what your students are up to Shine a light on teachers who go the extra mile community leaders who get involved with the schools and interesting people who have a positive impact on the district By keeping people informed you improve relations between schools and communities and keep residents invested in their district Moreover a good public relations strategy presents an opportunity to show stakeholders the positive impact that faculty staff administrators board members and most importantly students make in our communities

Wisconsin's Framework for Comprehensive School Health Programs Bonnie Nelson Trudell,1998 Drug Abuse: Prevention and Treatment Mangai Natarajan,2017-05-15 Ever since the Shanghai convention in 1909 the threat posed to human well being by drug abuse has led countries around the world to take action to deal with their drug problems There are wide variations in the policies pursued but most countries try to reduce both the supply of and the demand for drugs Unfortunately there is little research consensus on the respective merits of these two approaches or about the best ways to pursue them Consequently control and prevention policies are mostly driven by political considerations economic realities and cultural expectations though research has played an important part in formulating and evaluating treatments for drug addiction This volume reviews studies on drug abuse prevention and treatment strategies under five main areas 1 Reducing supply strategies to control the flow of drugs from production to retail distribution 2 Reducing demand prevention of drug use at all stages of involvement and consumption levels 3 Reducing harm promoting situational risk reduction practices for regular users addicts and recreational users 4 Reducing addiction drug treatment options for various groups in various settings and 5 Drug policies and prescriptions focused on debates about prohibition and legalization Field Hearing on the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Select Education and Civil Rights,1994 This legislative hearing focuses on Nebraska Wyoming Colorado and South Dakota s drug prevention efforts The emphasis here is on the efforts of rural states rural communities rural schools and families to combat drug and alcohol abuse Drug free school programs are particularly emphasized Also discussed are the issues various drug prevention programs face such as funding needs the allocation of resources the special problems faced by Native Americans and other concerns In addition to personal testimonies which are recorded here verbatim are a number of prepared statements by educators project administrators and students RJM Federal, State, and Local Response to the Drug Crisis United States.
