

Graduation Speech Sample

Good evening friends, family, faculty, and fellow graduates.

As we stand here today, on the brink of a new chapter in our lives, it's hard to believe that it's already been four years (or however long it took us to get here). It seems like just yesterday that we were nervously stepping onto campus, not quite sure what to expect.

But as we look back on the past four years, it's clear that we've come a long way. We've made new friends, learned new things, and grown as individuals. We've faced challenges and overcome them, and we've learned to persevere through difficult times.

And as we move on from this chapter in our lives, I encourage each and every one of us to remember the lessons we've learned and the experiences we've had. These experiences will shape who we are and how we approach the world, and they will serve us well in the years ahead.

But before we get too ahead of ourselves, let's take a moment to reflect on how we got here. I'm sure we all have different stories and experiences, but there are a few things that I think we can all relate to.

For starters, I'm sure we can all agree that college is a lot of hard work. Between classes, assignments, and exams, it's easy to get bogged down and feel overwhelmed. But despite the challenges, we've persevered and made it to this point.

I'm also sure that we've all had moments where we felt lost or unsure of ourselves. It's natural to feel that way, especially when you're trying to navigate a new environment and figure out your place in the world. But despite these moments of uncertainty, we've found our footing and discovered our passions.

And most importantly, I'm sure we can all agree that college has been an amazing experience. We've had the opportunity to learn from some of the best professors in the field, engage in meaningful discussions and debates, and be part of a community of like-minded individuals.

So, as we move on from this chapter in our lives, let's remember to be grateful for the experiences we've had and the people who have supported us along the way. To our parents, who have always believed in us and encouraged us to pursue our dreams, thank you for your unwavering love and guidance. To our teachers and mentors, who have imparted their knowledge and wisdom upon us, thank you for your invaluable guidance and encouragement. And to our friends, who have stood by us through thick and thin, thank you for your friendship and support.

A Forgotten Sisterhood Audrey Thomas McCluskey, 2014-10-30 Emerging from the darkness of the slave era and Reconstruction black activist women Lucy Craft Laney Mary McLeod Bethune Charlotte Hawkins Brown and Nannie Helen Burroughs founded schools aimed at liberating African American youth from disadvantaged futures in the segregated and decidedly unequal South. From the late nineteenth through mid twentieth centuries these individuals fought discrimination as members of a larger movement of black women who uplifted future generations through a focus on education social service and cultural transformation. Born free but with the shadow of the slave past still implanted in their consciousness Laney Bethune Brown and Burroughs built off each other's successes and learned from each other's struggles as administrators lecturers and suffragists. Drawing from the women's own letters and writings about educational methods and from remembrances of surviving students Audrey Thomas McCluskey reveals the pivotal significance of this sisterhood's legacy for later generations and for the institution of education itself.

Your Friend Forever, A. Lincoln Charles B. Strozier, 2016-05-03 On April 15 1837 a long gawky Abraham Lincoln walked into Joshua Speed's dry goods store in Springfield Illinois and asked what it would cost to buy the materials for a bed. Speed said seventeen dollars which Lincoln didn't have. He asked for a loan to cover that amount until Christmas. Speed was taken with his visitor but as he said later I never saw so gloomy and melancholy a face. Speed suggested Lincoln stay with him in a room over his store for free and share his large double bed. What began would become one of the most important friendships in American history. Speed was Lincoln's closest confidant offering him invaluable support after the death of his first love Ann Rutledge and during his rocky courtship of Mary Todd. Lincoln needed Speed for guidance support and empathy. Your Friend Forever A. Lincoln is a rich analysis of a relationship that was both a model of male friendship and a specific dynamic between two brilliant but fascinatingly flawed men who played off each other's strengths and weaknesses to launch themselves in love and life. Their friendship resolves important questions about

Lincoln's early years and adds significant psychological depth to our understanding of our sixteenth president

Sociological Practice John G. Bruhn, Howard Rebach, 2007-11-15 This second edition of a classic text in the field has been revisited by its authors and extensively reworked. It incorporates new case studies based on the authors' experiences as well as one completely new chapter. The first edition of Clinical Sociology was published in 1996. Its goal was to explore various approaches to problem solving at the micro, meso, and macro levels of social complexity. Written on the Wind Peter William Evans, 2019-07-25

Written on the Wind 1956 is one of classical Hollywood's most striking films and ranks among Douglas Sirk's finest achievements. An intense melodrama about an alcoholic playboy who marries the woman his best friend secretly loves, the film is highly stylized, psychologically complex, and marked by Sirk's characteristic charting of the social realities of 1950s America. This first single study of Written on the Wind reassesses the film's artistic heritage and place within the wider framework of contemporary American culture. Incorporating original archival research, Peter William Evans examines the production, promotion, and reception of Written on the Wind, exploring its themes of time, memory, space, family, class, and sex, as well as its brilliance of form. Its vivid aesthetics, powerful performances, and profound treatment of human emotions make Written on the Wind a masterpiece of Hollywood melodrama. Change: If I Can, You Can Travis

Angry, Wendie Davis-Grauer, 2018-10-01 In a brutally honest memoir, a motivational speaker, military veteran, and cancer survivor reveals how hope can bring about positive change. Ernie Johnson Jr., sportscaster, TNT, TBS. Change: If I Can, You Can is the story of a man destined for as much turmoil as life can provide. Travis Angry created his identity through childhood rebellion, dropping out of school, being in the military, fighting cancer, marrying, divorcing, raising children as a single father, obtaining a college degree, writing a memoir, and working as a professional speaker. Angry's gift is showing others how to resolve fear. His mission is to help teenagers, parents, teachers, coaches, and youth group directors to understand their lives and use hope as a tool for positive change. Travis' story will make you want to scream and shout. His perseverance and strength is truly inspiring. He is making a positive impact within his family and community. He is truly making a difference one page at a time. Jordin Sparks, singer, actress. The Rotarian, 1973-05

Established in 1911, The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide. Each issue contains feature articles, columns, and departments about or of interest to Rotarians. Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners, from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr., have written for the magazine. Under My Window Navid Sorkhou, 2015-03-20

Sammi is a car salesman, a family man, and an addict. Bored with his personal life, Sammi spends ridiculous amounts of money on women, booze, and drugs. Unfortunately, now Sammi cannot endure long without a hit of something from his dealer, Luci. But little does he know that the high he desperately seeks will eventually lead him to seal his fate. Constable Johnson is a police officer who has just pulled over a car thief. Fully Loaded as he is called on the street, is not just another pretty face. He is a law school graduate who gets a rush from stealing cars. Johnson hates to draw his gun. But when he does, what happens next will surprise everyone. As their
