

Good evening brethren!

This day will be noted as to be one of those rare and wonderful moments because of our invited guest. His name echoes the essence of service, dedication and faithfulness to the work of God.

According to D. L. Moody, God always uses the man closest to His heart. Undeniably, our guest preacher, Rev. Doc. Renato Layco, who came to know the Lord on August 11, 1978, is a man close to God's heart.

Dr. Layco is a diligent worker of God's vineyard from August of 1979 up to present, reaching out and transforming people's lives through preaching the word of God.

He is happily married to Mrs. Digna Narciso Layco, from Paniqui, Tarlac on May 7, 1988.

His achievements even prior to being a Pastor are truly commendable. He graduated with a degree in Electrical Engineering at Tarlac State University and passed the Board Exam for BSEE.

Bold spirited, he took up and finished his degree in Bachelor of Theology as well as Master of Theology at Liberty College in Lynchburg, Virginia USA in 1996; while his Doctor of Theology at Knox Theological Seminary in Fort Lauderdale, Florida USA in the year 2000.

At present, he is a Resource Speaker, a dynamite preacher frequently invited by different churches to share the word of God for various occasions; a Church Consultant; a Counselor; a Bible Teacher and a Bible School Director.

As J. Hudson Taylor once said, "All of God's great men are men who did great things for God because they reckoned on His being with them; they counted on His faithfulness." Indeed, our guest preacher for tonight is a man with great faith. And that seed of faith is the reason for him being here tonight.

A man I personally admire because of his wisdom, generous heart, caring spirit and unconquerable faith in God. Please welcome, Rev. Doc. Renato Layco.

Colson,2018-03-13 Jesus tells us that the greatest commandment is to love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind But how many of us know what this looks like in daily life Does loving God mean going to church tithing having regular prayer times Is it a feeling in our hearts A few years after Chuck Colson became a Christian he realized that the more he learned about God's love for him the more he wanted to know how to love God This book is the masterpiece Colson wrote after searching Scripture history and his own difficult experiences to answer his deepest question He discovered that loving God is obeying God rarely easy sometimes inconvenient often painful and entirely satisfying When we love God we know the pleasure of living out our true calling Billy Graham considers Loving God one of the most spiritually satisfying books I have ever read Joni Eareckson Tada refers to it as the complete volume on Christian living With fascinating stories and engaging theological insights Loving God has been bringing people closer to Jesus for over thirty years In this hour of opportunity for the church and for our own spiritual lives Loving God will inspire you to love God with your whole being It's what you were created to do      Marriage Ministry by Design Gary H.,Aimee Woolverton,2012-07-27 Your church or ministry will greatly benefit from the information contained within this book Learn a practical definition for marriage in the church as well as God's design for marriage Look at the various stages of marriage and the different forms of marriage And learn how to use the various components of ministry to marriage including a structure that will greatly enhance your ministry mix Topics include Why marriage ministry Components of marriage ministry Structuring marriage ministry Connecting points for marriage ministry     The Pastor's Library Robert A. Yost,2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber s classic work from the 1970s The Minister s Library Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library From Old and New Testament languages lexical aids and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies as well as pastoral resources Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses Far more than just a guide to commentaries as are so many works today this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies     Honor and Respect Robert Hickey,2023-11-09 Honor and Respect is the definitive guide to first impressions For any personal or professional situation where formality is of the essence and proper decorum is the expectation this book offers critical information on how to address introduce and communicate with officials functionaries and dignitaries from all walks of life and over 180 countries From presidents to pastors ambassadors to attorneys general to your local alderperson Honor and Respect offers clear explanations and examples of the official honorifics of thousands of federal state and municipal officials corporate executives clergy tribal officials and members of the armed services in the United States Australia Canada and the United Kingdom It also includes titles and guidance on addressing high officials from more than 180 countries Painstakingly researched and carefully vetted the book s contents are indispensable for individuals or offices working in government foreign affairs diplomacy law the military training and consulting and public relations among others This updated third edition reflects the nuanced changes in language protocol and conventions that have been implemented by the State Department Armed Forces and myriad other government offices in the US and beyond     The theory of preaching, lects. on homiletics Austin Phelps,1882     The Speaker ,1895     Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1888     Speaking of Satan in Zambia Johanneke Kroesbergen-Kamps,2023-03-01 In this book it is argued that narratives about Satanism which have become popular in the Christian context of Zambia from the 1990s onwards make cultural sense because of their links to traditional African notions as well as contemporary Christian theologies These narratives also resonate with unease regarding the cultural change which is connected by Zambians to modernity Narratives about Satanism further make personal sense to their narrators the pastors who provide a platform for them and their audiences These arguments contribute to the academic study of religion in Africa in particular of African Christianity and of witchcraft related phenomena as well as to the global study of discourses on Satanism and other conspiracy theories All of these disciplines are related to the topic of Satanism in Zambia but the phenomenon itself has not been discussed at length which makes the existing academic literature incomplete and inadequate The comprehensive focus on the case of narratives about Satanism in Zambia offers new insights and enhances current theoretical reflection The research presented in this book is original carried out during fieldwork spanning from 2012 to 2017 in Zambia and literature study in the years after that Methodologically the research is based on participant observation in churches in which testimonies of ex Satanists were presented as well as participation in the Fingers of Thomas a Roman Catholic group which investigates rumours about Satanism Furthermore it is based on interviews with pastors and students of theology active in the deliverance ministry from Pentecostal as well as mainline churches and also on interviews with people who have had experiences of Satanism Finally the research is based on an analysis of collected testimonies of ex Satanists as they were presented in these interviews in churches on radio programmes in newspapers and in other sources
