

New Women Of Lusaka

S Ben Porath

New Women Of Lusaka:

New Women of Lusaka Ilsa M. Glazer, 1979 New Women of Lusaka examines how educated young women in Zambia's capital city are adapting to their new social and occupational status in society. The challenges that result from rapid social change appear through vivid descriptions of family, school, and social life in modern Lusaka. The author clearly shows how difficult and painful the process of culture change can be for individuals who become caught up in it through circumstances largely beyond their control.

Women and the Remaking of Politics in Southern Africa Gisela G. Geisler, 2004 This study looks at women's struggle in Southern Africa where the last ten years have seen the most pervasive success stories on the African continent. Tracing the history of women's involvement in anti-colonial struggles and against apartheid, the book analyses post-colonial outcomes and examines the strategies employed by women's movements to gain a foothold in politics.

Zambia Marcia Burdette, 2021-12-12 This accessible case study offers a fully rounded picture of Zambia's course since independence, chronicling the periods of boom and decline after the fall in the price of copper around the mid-1970s. The author advocates an internally oriented economic strategy to retain industries and livelihoods and investigates the ability of the current leadership to achieve this.

Second World, Second Sex Kristen Ghodsee, 2019-01-31 Women from the state socialist countries in Eastern Europe, what used to be called the Second World, once dominated women's activism at the United Nations, but their contributions have been largely forgotten or deemed insignificant in comparison with those of Western feminists. In Second World, Second Sex, Kristen Ghodsee rescues some of this lost history by tracing the activism of Eastern European and African women during the 1975 United Nations International Year of Women and the subsequent Decade for Women, 1976-1985. Focusing on case studies of state socialist Bulgaria and nonaligned but socialist-leaning Zambia, Ghodsee examines the feminist networks that developed between the Second and Third Worlds and shows how alliances between socialist women challenged American women's leadership of the global women's movement. Drawing on interviews and archival research across three continents, Ghodsee argues that international ideological competition between capitalism and socialism profoundly shaped the world women inhabit today.

Historical Dictionary of Zambia Bizeck Jube Phiri, Thokozile Shaba, 2023-08-15 Zambia is a nation with a long record of peace that has enjoyed decades of constitutional rule and even in recent years an increasingly competitive democracy. Peace, constitutionalism, democracy, and nationhood face constant challenges, such as in the elections of 2006 when the ugly language of ethnic confrontation found renewed currency. Moreover, Zambia's economic record and prospects are less equivocal after over four decades: per capita incomes are lower than they were at the dawn of independence. Historical Dictionary of Zambia, Fourth Edition, contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 1,000 cross-referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Zambia.

Women And

Work In Africa Edna G. Bay, 2019-04-18 This collection of articles grows out of a symposium on the subject of women and work in Africa held on the Urbana Champaign campus of the University of Illinois in the spring of 1979 The organizing committee for that program sought first to update the field of economic studies of women in Africa and second to provide a forum for the exchange and stimulation of ideas among scholars and professionals concerned for women in Africa The publication here of the majority of the symposium papers represents a logical final step in the fulfillment of the objectives of the symposium program committee

Women and Power in Zimbabwe Carolyn Martin Shaw, 2015-10-30 The revolt against white rule in Rhodesia nurtured incipient local feminisms in women who imagined independence as a road to gender equity and economic justice But the country's rebirth as Zimbabwe and Robert Mugabe's rise to power dashed these hopes Using history literature participant observation and interviews Carolyn Martin Shaw surveys Zimbabwean feminisms from the colonial era to today She examines how actions as clearly disparate as baking scones for self protection carrying guns in the liberation and feeling morally superior to men represent sources of female empowerment She also presents the ways women across Zimbabwean society rural and urban professional and domestic accommodated or confronted post independence setbacks Finally Shaw offers perspectives on the ways contemporary Zimbabwean women depart from the prevailing view that feminism is a Western imposition having little to do with African women The result of thirty years of experience Women and Power in Zimbabwe addresses the promises of feminism and femininity for generations of African women

Home economics Sacha Hepburn, 2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa's post colonial and post apartheid history

Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Iris Berger, E. Frances White, 1999 These four volumes in this major series provide a single source reference to the status of the field of women's history and to ways that the field can be expanded A basic set for all academic libraries Library Journal Academic Newswire Berger and White focus on Sub Saharan Africa tracing women's history from earliest times to the present By exploring their place in social economic political and religious life the authors highlight the changing societal position of women through shifts over time in ideas about gender and the connections between women's public and private spheres
