The number of people around the world in need of humanitarian action and protection is at its highest figure in decades yet; at the same time, the humanitarian system is facing numerous problems and undergoing fundamental reforms. This book invites us to tackle these challenges head-on, addressing the increasing complexity of humanitarian crises and the implications for humanitarian principles and standards, as well as the management of humanitarian projects. Expansive in scope, the book covers the sector's historical foundations and the need to decolonise. The main types of crises and sectors of humanitarian response. State and non-state actors and institutions. The key rules, norms, and project management approaches. Key trends and challenges, including access, innovation, and anticipation. The book also covers important debates on localisation, inclusive programming, and the decolonisation of the humanitarian system. Interactive by design, readers will be able to test their learning out with quizzes, multimedia resources, and interactive exercises. This exciting new textbook will be an important read for students looking for a comprehensive introduction, as well as for practitioners wanting to stimulate critical thinking and enhance their practical skills. Legal Issues Related to Proving 'Service Connection' for VA Disability Compensation James E.
