his party once ate so much food and had such severe stomach aches that natives took them into the forest and gave them papaya to soothe their indigestion. What's more, it isn't just Columbus who held the papaya in such high esteem; either Mexican and Costa Rican natives call the papaya tree the tree of good health. Today the largest producers of papaya include the United States, Puerto Rico, and Mexico, and each year in September we celebrate this tropical fruit with National Papaya Month. National Papaya Month is an excellent opportunity to discover how to incorporate this fantastic fruit into your daily diet. Not only is papaya perfect for sweets and dessert recipes, but also it's ideal for appetizers and main courses too. Choose from our great collection of recipes which include soups, salads, pizza, pasta, curries, pies, puddings, and tarts, and discover the fruit of the angels.
