

Church Officers Policies & Procedures

Deacon Council Chairman

Purpose: As Deacon Chairman you have full responsibility for all Deacon Ministries in the church while you serve as chairman. You can achieve best results in your work only as you share responsibility with other Deacons and build them into an effective ministry team.

Duties:

1. Lead the Deacons in planning, conducting, and evaluating all of their work.
2. Plan, conduct, and evaluate Deacons meetings.
3. Provide Deacons with adequate training and resources for their work.
4. Guide Deacons in organizing and conducting a ministry to families in the church.
5. Serve as a member of the Church Council. Interpret Deacon work to the Council, provide Deacons with information about the total work of the church.
6. Participate in all Deacon work, including ministering to a group of families in the Deacon Family Ministry Plan.
7. Report regularly to the church on the work of the Deacons.
8. Give guidance to the pastoral ministries of the church when it is without a Pastor.

Moderator

Purpose: The moderator maintains the fellowship of the church. The role of the moderator is to facilitate the work of the church through the most harmonious route. Many churches ask their pastors to serve as moderators. In other churches, the chairperson of deacons is moderator of the church. Some churches elect a moderator from the congregation for a one- to three-year term.

Duties:

1. Maintain the fellowship.
2. Conduct orderly church business.
3. Execute church business in a timely manner.
4. Clarify church business for later action.
5. Keep on course with the business meeting agenda.
6. Speak for the church in times of crises.

Church Clerk

Purpose: The church clerk maintains thorough and complete records of its business.

Duties:

1. Record minutes.
2. Preserve records.
3. Correspond with other churches for membership changes.
4. Provide records for church history.
5. Prepare the Annual Church Profile.

Trothen, 2012-09-01 Shattering the Illusion is the first book to gather and comparatively analyze policies addressing child sexual abuse complaints in a selection of religious institutions in Canada Although there is a substantial body of literature regarding Christianity and sexual abuse very little of it focuses on religious institutions in Canada and their respective policies In the foreword Tracey J Trothen summarizes the Cornwall Inquiry out of which this book arose She then examines the Roman Catholic Church The United Church of Canada the Anglican Church the Mennonite Church Islam and the Canadian Unitarian Council Unitarian Universalist Association describing in detail the evolution and particular content of policies and procedures that address child sexual abuse complaints directed at paid and volunteer faith community representatives and or leaders She identifies differences and common themes among the approaches taken by the institutions and provides a summary table for an accessible comparative overview Child sexual abuse is not new but the emergence of policies to address abuse complaints within religious institutions is This book identifies significant and shared causal factors behind the emergence of policy and reviews their content carefully This review will serve as a significant tool for furthering the development of such policies Managing the Ministry Jody Dean, 2024-08-01 In Managing the Ministry A Practical Guide for Church Administration Jody Dean provides an up to date and accessible guide to church operations

Child Safety Guidelines for Local Churches Roger N. McNamara, 2010-10 Child Safety Guidelines for Local Churches deals with the sensitive subject of child sexual abuse and what churches can do to protect children under their care while at the same time minimizing their own liability Prevention and training are critical elements in developing a structure that ensures the safety of children while they are in God's house Sadly many churches are unprepared to combat the possibility of the unthinkable happening to one of their precious little ones By not taking reasonable precautions they not only endanger the welfare of their youngsters but are subject to charges of gross negligence and significant financial judgments against their congregations The author outlines numerous steps that any congregation can take to protect both the children and churches they serve ROGER MCNAMARA is a veteran pastor missionary and church planter with more than forty six years of experience in local church ministry in Latin America and the United States He has started and worked in half a dozen churches over the past four decades and now serves as the Church Planting Training Specialist for Baptist Mid Missions In this capacity he works with churches and church planters throughout the United States and Canada teaching training and mentoring church leaders He also serves in a number of leadership positions within the Baptist Mid Missions TEAM NORTH AMERICA as well as the registrar for the School of Church Planting He has published two other books and several leadership training manuals Resources in Education ,1999-04 Outside of Eden: Part One Fannie M.
