Saved to Save and Saved to Serve Harold Hill, 2017-07-24 The Salvation Army has now been around for more than one hundred and fifty years having celebrated its sesquicentennial in 2015 with an International Congress in London Over the years both the Army and the world in which it appeared have changed beyond recognition This is a good time for the movement to stop and look back not just to celebrate but to see where it is today The Army has not evolved in isolation from the world Bringing its own history with it it nevertheless belongs to the twenty first century world as much as William Booth's little East End Mission belonged to nineteenth century London This book attempts to explore the interaction between mission and world as it has impacted the Army's beliefs and practices as well as the place it now occupies in the wider world. This critical and analytical study may also be of interest to those beyond the Army's ranks who would like to learn more about this remarkable organization. Australian Social Policy and the Human Services Ed Carson, Lorraine Kerr, 2013-09-23

Part I explores the debates and organising principles of social policy and the human services. Part II focuses on the development and delivery of social policy including its history and a discussion of the Third Sector in Australia. Part III covers specific areas of social policy: income maintenance, employment, housing, health care, family and child care and indigenous social policy. The CQ Press Guide to Urban Politics and Policy in the United States Christine Kelleher Palus, Richardson Dilworth, 2016-02-11. The CQ Press Guide to Urban Politics and Policy in the United States will bring the CQ Press reference guide approach to topics in urban politics and policy in the United States. If the old adage that all politics is local is even partially true, then cities are important centers for political activity and for the delivery of public goods and services. U.S. cities are diverse in terms of their political and economic development, demographic makeup, governance structures and public policies. Yet there are some durable patterns across American cities too. Despite differences in governance and/or geographic size, most cities face similar challenges in the management of public finances, the administration of public safety and education. And all U.S. cities have a similar legal status within the federal system. This reference guide will help students understand how American cities from old to new have developed over time. Part I: how the various city governance structures allocate power across city officials and agencies. Part II: how civic and social forces interact with the organs of city government and organize to win control over these organs and/or their policy outputs. Part III: and what patterns of public goods and services cities produce for their residents. Part IV: The thematic and narrative structure allows students to dip into a topic in urban politics for deeper historical and comparative context than would be possible in either an A to Z encyclopedia entry or in an urban studies course text

FEATURES Approximately 40 chapters organized in major thematic parts in one volume available in both print and electronic formats Front matter includes an Introduction by the Editors along with biographical backgrounds about the Editors and the Contributing Authors Back matter includes a compilation of relevant topical data or tabular presentation of major historical developments population growth size of city budgets etc or historical figures e g mayors a bibliographic essay and a detailed index Sidebars are provided throughout and chapters conclude with References Further Readings and Cross References to related chapters as links in the e version This Guide is a valuable reference on the topics in urban politics and policy in the United States The thematic and narrative structure allows researchers to dip into a topic in urban politics for a deeper historical and comparative context than would be possible in either an A to Z encyclopedia entry or in an urban studies course text
