Agnès Varda Agnès Varda, 2014 Collected interviews with the French filmmaker who is sometimes called the Mother of the New Wave The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda Colleen Kennedy-Karpat, Feride Çiçekoglu, 2022-03-24 Drawing especially on the encounters and relationships that defined her exceptional career The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda outlines a sustainable legacy for the celebrated director and visual artist Over nine chapters it unpacks how creation connection and environment form the core of Varda's artistry which centers foremost on relationships with her family with other artists even with passersby she would meet in her travels around the world Also celebrating her feminist legacy the chapters cover a wide range from the classic Cléo from 5 to 7 1962 to documentaries The Beaches of Agnès 2008 and Faces Places 2017 as well as selected art installations The book's final section is dedicated to teaching Varda's work here ten scholars from around the world consider how Varda's art and feminist pedagogies offer unique ways to bring crucial concepts into the classroom By seeking a sustainable praxis to discuss and teach Varda's work and by making pedagogical concerns an explicit part of this approach this book argues that Varda's insights about the nature of creative work will inspire new generations of viewers and audiences The Cinema of Agnès Varda Delphine Benezet, 2014-05-20 Agnès Varda a pioneer of the French New Wave has been making radical films for over half a century Many of these are considered by scholars filmmakers and audiences alike as audacious seminal and unforgettable This volume considers her production as a whole revisiting overlooked films like Mur Murs Documenteur 1980-81 and connecting her cinema to recent installation work This study demonstrates how Varda has resisted norms of representation and dictates of production It also shows how she has elaborated a personal repertoire of images characters and settings which all provide insight on their cultural and political contexts The book thus offers new readings of this director's multifaceted career arguing that her work should be seen as an aesthetically influential and ethically driven production where cinema is both a political and collaborative practice and a synesthetic art form Agnes Varda Kelley Conway, 2015-11-15 Both a precursor to and a critical member of the French New Wave Agnès Varda weaves documentary and fiction into tapestries that portray distinctive places and complex human beings Critics and aficionados have celebrated Varda's independence and originality since the New Wave touchstone Cleo from 5 to 7 1962 brought her a level of international acclaim she has yet to relinquish Film historian Kelley Conway traces Varda's works from her 1954 debut La Pointe Courte through a varied career that includes nonfiction and fiction shorts and features installation art and the triumphant 2008 documentary The Beaches of Agnès Drawing on Varda's archives and conversations with the filmmaker Conway focuses on the concrete details of how Varda makes films a project's emergence its development and the shifting forms of its screenplay the search for financing and the execution from casting through editing and exhibition In the process she departs from film history's traditional view of the French New Wave and reveals one artist's nontraditional trajectory through independent filmmaking The result is an intimate consideration that reveals the artistic consistencies and bold changes in the career of one of the world's most exuberant and intriguing directors Agnes Varda

Alison Smith, 2019-01-04 The first introduction in English devoted wholly to Varda and aimed at a general and student audience Places Varda's major films in the context of her whole oeuvre and follows the development of important themes across her work A Medium Seen Otherwise Roger Hallas, 2023 Through a new look at how political historical and art documentaries engage with photographic images objects and archives A Medium Seen Otherwise argues that film allows us to better understand what people do with analog and digital photographs as material objects that enable social and political relations through multisensory experience Moreover as a time based medium with sound film can bring the event of photography into fuller view demonstrating how no single participant in it photographer subject camera photograph or viewer has sovereignty over its affect meaning or value The book thus explores the ways in which the innovative incorporation of photography into documentary film permits us to see both of these media otherwise Photographs whether professional or vernacular are conventionally understood to furnish documentaries with indexical evidence and visual illustration of history yet the spatio temporal and aural dimensions of film permit documentaries to illuminate photography's wider capacities beyond the merely representational Combining new critical perspectives on well known documentary filmmakers and photographers Agn's Varda Rithy Panh Edward Burtynsky Malick Sidib Vivian Maier JR Ken Burns Errol Morris and Akram Zaatar with analyses of lesser known but important documentaries author Roger Hallas investigates a global range of documentary and vernacular photographic contexts including Lebanon Palestine Mali Congo Cambodia Ireland Spain Mexico Chile Canada and the US While authorship and representation remain common rhetorical frameworks for documentaries about photography A Medium Seen Otherwise offers a compelling account of how the intermediality between documentary film and photography can posit far more expansive conceptions of both media A companion website shows clips of films discussed in the book Intermedial Dialogues Schmid Marion Schmid, 2019-05-23 Casting fresh light on one of the most important movements in film history Intermedial Dialogues The French New Wave and the Other Arts is the first comprehensive study of the New Wave's relationship with the older arts Traversing the fields of literature theatre painting architecture and photography and drawing on Andre Bazin alongside recent theories of intermediality it investigates the impure intermedial aesthetics of New Wave cinema Filmmakers under discussion include critics turned directors Francois Truffaut Eric Rohmer Jean Luc Godard Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol members of the Left Bank Group Alain Resnais Agnes Varda and Chris Marker but also lesser known directors notably the secret child of the New Wave Guy Gilles This wide ranging book offers an original reading of the complex often ambivalent ways in which the New Wave engages the other arts in both its discursive construction and filmic practice Key Features A wide ranging study which explores the complex often ambiguous ways in which the New Wave engages with the other arts in both its discursive construction and cinematic practice Affords a new prism for understanding New Wave filmmaking and its legacy through comprehensive analysis of the ways in which the New Wave aesthetic was shaped through intermedial dialogue and medium rivalry Reassesses one of the most acclaimed movements in film history drawing on cutting edge theory in the prominent field of intermediality studies

Offers an inclusive heterogeneous view of the New Wave through inclusion of lesser known directors such as Guy Gilles Jean Daniel Pollet and Jacques Demy alongside renowned Nouvelle Vague filmmakers The Ethnographic Optic Laure Astourian, 2024-06-04
The Ethnographic Optic traces the surprising role of ethnography in French cinema in the 1960s and examines its place in several New Wave fictions and cin ma v rit documentaries during the final years of the French colonial empire
Focusing on prominent French filmmakers Jean Rouch Chris Marker and Alain Resnais author Laure Astourian elucidates their striking pivot from centering their work on distant lands to scrutinizing their own French urban culture
As awareness of the ramifications of the shrinking empire grew within metropolitan France these filmmakers turned inward what their similarly white urban bourgeois predecessors had long turned outward toward the colonies the ethnographic gaze
Featuring some of the most canonical and best loved films of the French tradition such as Moi un Noir La jet e and Muriel this is an essential book for readers interested in national identity and cinema

What tensions characterized the relationships between cinema European Leftists and emerging postcolonial ideologies after World War II
In Traveling Auteurs author Luca Caminati analyzes the work of influential Italian filmmakers Roberto Rossellini Pier Paolo Pasolini and Michelangelo Antonioni as they engaged politically and aesthetically with the global landscapes and politics of the Cold War period
As documentaries the films considered in this book record specific manifestations of political sensibilities of the twentieth century
As bodies of work they reveal that the traveling auteurs who made them were symptomatic actors in complex geopolitical networks
As cultural objects reflecting and shaping contemporaneous debates they provoke a complex afterlife at home and abroad
In the three chapters dedicated to Rossellini in India Pasolini in Africa and the Middle East and Antonioni in China Caminati pays particular attention both to the reception that these films had in the countries where they were shot and to their legacies in Italian film history As it follows the entanglements of filmmakers artists and activists involved as allies or direct witnesses to momentous political change this book sheds new light on anticolonial struggles the reaffirmation of the Non Aligned Movement and the consolidation of the Chinese Communist Party

Antifascism and the Avant-Garde Julia Alekseyeva, 2025-02-25 Leftist filmmakers of the 1960s revolutionized the art of documentary Often inspired by the radical art of the Soviet 1920s filmmakers in countries like France and Japan dared to make film form a powerful weapon in the fight against fascism weaving fiction into nonfiction and surrealism with neorealism to rupture everyday ways of being seeing and thinking Through careful readings of Matsumoto Toshio Jean Luc Godard Chris Marker Agnès Varda Hani Susumu and others Julia Alekseyeva shows that avant garde documentary films of the 1960s did not strive to inoculate the viewer with the ideology of Truth but instead aimed to unveil and estrange so that viewers might approach capitalist imperialist and fascist media with critical awareness Antifascism and the Avant Garde thus provides a transnational ecology of antifascist art that resonates profoundly with our current age Digital Storytelling Mark

Dunford, Tricia Jenkins, 2017-12-07 This edited collection brings together academics and practitioners to explore the uses of Digital Storytelling which places the greatest possible emphasis on the voice of the storyteller Case studies are used as a platform to investigate questions of concept theory and practice and to shine an interrogative light on this emergent form of participatory media The collection examines the creative and academic roots of Digital Storytelling before drawing on a range of international examples to consider the way in which the practice has established itself and evolved in different settings across the world Phenomenology and the Future of Film J. Chamarette, 2012-09-28 Using hybrid
