d. Of what interest to investors is the changing relationship between dividend and capital gains yields over time?

- Some investors need cash dividends, while others would prefer growth. Also, investors must pay taxes each year on the dividends received during the year, while taxes on the capital gain can be delayed until the gain is actually realized.
- Some investors need cash dividends, while others would prefer growth. Also, investors must pay taxes each year on the capital gain during the year, while taxes on the dividends can be delayed until the stock is sold.
- It is of no interest to investors whether they receive dividend income or capital gains income, since both types of income are always taxed at the same rate.
- It is of no interest to investors whether they receive dividend income or capital gains income, since taxes on both types of income must be paid in the current year.
