Martin Puchner, 2012 The Third Edition now includes several thematic teaching clusters that bring together a number of short texts around an important cultural theme such as Creation and the Cosmos Travel and Conquest Literature about Literature God Church and Self These clusters give instructors and students short counterpoints to or elaborations on the themes and topics covered in the anthologys major works and they also provide direct textual support of broad historical or cultural contexts that are described in the part introductions or individual headnotes Canon Fanfiction Christine Schott, 2023-01-30 Several scholarly fields investigate the reuse of source texts most relevantly adaptation studies and fanfiction studies The limitation of these two fields is that adaptation studies focuses narrowly on retelling usually in the form of film adaptations but is not as well equipped to treat other uses of source material like prequels sequels and spinoffs On the other hand fanfiction studies has the broad reach adaptation studies lacks but is generally interested in underground production rather than material that goes through the official publication process and thus enters the literary canon This book sits in the gap between these fields discussing published novels and their contribution to the scholarly engagement with their pre and early modern source material as well as applying that creative framework to the teaching of literature in the college classroom Francophone Literature as World Literature Christian Moraru, Nicole Simek, Bertrand Westphal, 2020-06-25 Francophone Literature as World Literature examines French language works from a range of global traditions and shows how these literary practices draw individuals communities and their cultures and idioms into a planetary web of tension and cross fertilization The Francophone corpus under scrutiny here comes about in the evolving markedly relational context provided by these processes and their developments during and after the French empire The 15 chapters of this collection delve into key aspects moments and sites of the literature flourishing throughout the francosphere after World War II and especially since the 1980s from the French Hexagon to the Caribbean and India and from Qu bec to the Maghreb and Romania Understood and practiced as World Literature Francophone literature claims with particular force in the wake of the litt rature monde debate its place in a more democratic world republic of letters where writers critics publishers and audiences are no longer beholden to traditional centers of cultural authority Women, Literature and Development in Africa Anthonia C. Kalu, 2019-12-09 This book is a powerful exploration of the role of women in the evolution of African thinking and narratives on development from the precolonial period right through to the modern day Whilst the book identifies women s oppression and marginalization as significant challenges to contemporary Africa s advancement it also explores how new written narratives draw on traditional African knowledge systems to bring deep rooted and sometimes radical approaches to progress The book asserts that Africans must tell their own stories expressed through the complex meanings and nuances of African languages and often conveyed through oral traditions and storytelling in which women play an important role The book's close examination of language and meaning in the African narrative tradition advances the illumination and elevation of African storytelling as part of a viable and valid knowledge base in its own right rather than as an extension of European paradigms and methods Anthonia C Kalu's new edition of this important book fully revised throughout will also include fresh analysis of the role of digital media education and religion in African narratives At a time when the prominence and participation of African women in development and sociopolitical debates is growing this book's exploration of their lived experiences and narrative contribution will be of interest to students of African literature gender studies development history and sociology Traditional Chinese Fiction in the English-Speaking World Junjie Luo, 2022-08-16 This book develops interdisciplinary and comparative approaches to analyzing the cross cultural travels of traditional Chinese fiction It ties this genre to issues such as translation world literature digital humanities book culture and images of China Each chapter offers a case study of the historical and cultural conditions under which traditional Chinese fiction has traveled to the English speaking world proposing a critical lens that can be used to explain these cross cultural encounters The book seeks to identify connections between traditional Chinese fiction and other cultures that create new meanings and add to the significance of reading teaching and studying these classical novels and stories in the English speaking world Scholars students and general readers who are interested in traditional Chinese fiction translation studies and comparative and world literature will find this book useful A History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D'haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe's concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics
