Heureux comme un professeur en France ?

Jean-Marie Tournier, 2019-01-28T00:00:00Z

La première partie traite de la violence en général : l'homme est un animal violent puis de la violence à l'école : une tradition de violence et les nouvelles formes de violence de ses causes un peu difficile. Les dictats de la publicité, les crans, le libéralisme et des réponses proposées de la société sont souvent la douceur parfois. La deuxième partie parle du voile islamique et de l'islamophobie du racisme d'aujourd'hui officiellement et encouragé parfois et des répercussions de ces questions à l'école. La troisième partie dit les difficultés du métier d'enseignant et son peu de reconnaissance par les politiques et la société. La quatrième partie aborde plus spécialement l'enseignement du français son jargon insoutenable et ses préférences mesurées une grammaire absurde des horaires inadaptés des preuves incohérentes. L'ouvrage propose enfin en cinquième partie la plus courte un logo du français et des lettres comme source de bonheur et guide de bonne conduite. Note : L'originalité de cet ouvrage est de toujours se rappeler la littérature dans ses analyses par exemple pour parler de la violence à l'école il a fait appel notamment à Augustin d'Hippone, La Bruyère, Flaubert, Beaumarchais, Boris Vian.

Contemporary French Cinema

Alan J. Singerman, Michèle Bissière, 2018-09-15

Like its French language companion volume Le Cinéma français contemporain, Manuel de classe Alan Singerman and Michèle Bissière's Contemporary French Cinema: A Student's Book offers a detailed look at recent French cinema through its analyses of twenty notable and representative French films that have appeared since 1980. Sure to delight Anglophone fans of French film, it can be used with equal success in English language courses and when paired with its companion volume, dual language ones. Acclaim for Le Cinéma français contemporain, Manuel de classe From Le Dernier Métronome to Intouchables, Bissière and Singerman cover the latest trends of French cinema emphasizing context and analytical method as Singerman did in Apprentissage du cinéma français (Focus 2004). The authors offer a selection of films most French cinéphiles will applaud and they incorporate insights from some of the best critical work on French cinema.

Students of French film will also find all the bibliographical pointers they need to dig deeper and instructors will appreciate the pedagogical components included in the chapters Jonathan Walsh Department of French Studies Wheaton College Massachusetts This remarkable book comes to us from two seasoned teachers and critics and beautifully complements an earlier work Alan Singerman's Apprentissage du cinéma français The time period covered more targeted here than in the preceding text is admirably well chosen and the breakdown by broad category each offering multiple options guides the teacher while offering a choice among an abundance of interesting films The preliminary chapters both succinct and informative give students an excellent overview of French cinema as a whole and of the technical knowledge needed for film analysis Each of the subsequent chapters offers an indispensable introduction discussing the plot director production actors reception and context of the film in question and also provides a very useful filmography and bibliography an exemplary work Brigitte E Humbert Department of French and Francophone Studies Middlebury College Vivre Ici Alison J. Murray Levine, 2018-03-19 Vivre Ici analyzes a diverse selection of contemporary French documentaries about spaces and places in France Integrating film theory eco criticism and cultural history Levine investigates documentary cinema as experience The book reveals a collage like fragmented vision of France as seen through documentary cameras and explores the social and political consequences of these films that matter
