Bright Star in the Present Prospect Ian Dunn, 2015-10-19 An illustrated history of the University of Chester charting its progress from the foundation as Chester Diocesan Training College in 1839 to the achievement of university status in 2005 and subsequent consolidation as a leading higher education institution in the region Self-Tracking Btihaj

Ajana, 2017-10-01 This book provides an empirical and philosophical investigation of self tracking practices In recent years there has been an explosion of apps and devices that enable the data capturing and monitoring of everyday activities behaviours and habits Encouraged by movements such as the Quantified Self a growing number of people are embracing this culture of quantification and tracking in the spirit of improving their health and wellbeing The aim of this book is to enhance understanding of this fast growing trend bringing together scholars who are working at the forefront of the critical study of self tracking practices Each chapter provides a different conceptual lens through which one can examine these practices while grounding the discussion in relevant empirical examples From phenomenology to discourse analysis from questions of identity privacy and agency to issues of surveillance and tracking at the workplace this edited collection takes on a wide and yet focused approach to the timely topic of self tracking It constitutes a useful companion for scholars students and everyday users interested in the Quantified Self phenomenon The Outlaw Ocean Ian Urbina, 2019-08-20 NATIONAL BESTSELLER

A riveting adrenaline fueled tour of a vast lawless and rampantly criminal world that few have ever seen the high seas There are few remaining frontiers on our planet But perhaps the wildest and least understood are the world s oceans too big to police and under no clear international authority these immense regions of treacherous water play host to rampant criminality and exploitation Traffickers and smugglers pirates and mercenaries wreck thieves and repo men vigilante conservationists and elusive poachers seabound abortion providers clandestine oil dumpers shackled slaves and cast adrift stowaways drawing on five years of perilous and intrepid reporting often hundreds of miles from shore Ian Urbina introduces us to the inhabitants of this hidden world Through their stories of astonishing courage and brutality survival and tragedy he uncovers a globe spanning network of crime and exploitation that emanates from the fishing oil and shipping industries and on which the world s economies rely Both a gripping adventure story and a stunning expos this unique work of reportage brings fully into view for the first time the disturbing reality of a floating world that connects us all a place where anyone can do anything because no one is watching The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750, 2018-12-10

William A Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe s overseas corporations played in early modern global history recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration Across the Mediterranean Atlantic Indian Ocean and Pacific corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation movement and exchange between and amongst European and non European communities bringing them directly into dialogue often for the first time Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world Contributors include Michael D Bennett Aske Laursen Brock Liam D Haydon Lisa Hellman Leonard Hodges Emily Mann Simon Mills Chris Nierstrasz Edgar Pereira Edmond Smith Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bown,2023 This book is a wide ranging reference work covering the more than 550 Indigenous languages of Australia The chapters in the book explore typology and classification linguistic structures sociolinguistics and language variation and language in the community The final part offers sketches of a selection of languages sub groups and families Handbook on Green Infrastructure Danielle Sinnett,Nick Smith ,Sarah Burgess,2015-11-27 Green infrastructure encompasses many features in the built environment It is widely recognised as a valuable resource in our towns and cities and it is therefore crucial to understand create protect and manage this resource This Handbook sets the context for green infrastructure as a means to make urban environments more resilient sustainable liveable and equitable Including state of the art reviews that summarise the existing knowledge as well as research findings this Handbook provides current evidence for the beneficial impact of green infrastructure on health environmental quality and the economy It discusses the planning and design of green infrastructure as a strategic network down to the individual features in a neighbourhood and looks at the process of green infrastructure implementation emphasising the importance of collaboration across multiple professions and sectors This comprehensive volume operates at multiple spatial scales from strategic networks at the regional level to individual features in neighbourhoods with international case studies used throughout to illustrate key examples of good practice This collection of expert contributions will be invaluable to students and academics in the fields of planning urban studies and geography Practitioners and policy makers will also find the policy discussion and examples enlightening Annual Report - Central Soil Salinity Research Institute Central Soil Salinity Research Institute (Karnāl, India),2015 Inner empire Daniel Maudlin,Alex Bremner,2024-08-06 Inner Empire explores the impact of imperial cultures on the landscapes and urban environments of the British Isles from the sixteenth century through to the twentieth century It asserts that Britain s four hundred year entanglement with global empire left its mark upon the British Isles as much as it did the wider world Buildings stood as one of the most conspicuous manifestations of the myriad relationships that Britain maintained with the theory and practice of colonialism in its modern history Divided into two main sections the volume s content considers internal colonisation and its infrastructures of control order and suppression alongside wider relationships between architecture the imperial economy and cultural identity Taken together the essays in this volume present for the first time a coherent analysis of the British Isles as an imperial setting understood through its buildings spaces and infrastructure The Power of Anticipatory Images in Student Achievement James M. Davy,2020-10-03 This book features ten high academically achieving low income inner city students from Newark New Jersey who graduated from public high schools at or near the top of their class and continued to excel in college Using a qualitative research design the author interviewed the ten students and the person who most influenced their educational progress about what motivated them to achieve at such high levels Three mutually reinforcing anticipatory images emerged as a common element of their stories In their own voices the students describe the anticipatory images they framed how they developed them and how they used them to their advantage Davy advances a theoretical model of the Anticipatory Competent student who continually progresses in the directions of the images projected ahead The Puzzle of the American Economy Mark A. Forging Communities in Colonial Alta California Kathleen L. Hull, John G. Douglass, 2018-10-16 Between 1769 and 1834 an influx of Spanish Russian and then American colonists streamed into Alta California seeking new opportunities Their arrival brought the imposition of foreign beliefs practices and constraints on Indigenous peoples Forging Communities in Colonial Alta California reorients understandings of this dynamic period which challenged both Native and non Native people to reimagine communities not only in different places and spaces but also in novel forms and practices The contributors draw on archaeological and historical archival sources to analyze the generative processes and nature of communities of belonging in the face of rapid demographic change and perceived or enforced difference Contributors provide important historical background on the effects that colonialism missions and lives lived beyond mission walls had on Indigenous settlement marriage patterns trade and interactions They also show the agency with which Indigenous peoples make their own decisions as they construct and reconstruct their communities With nine different case studies and an insightful epilogue this book offers analyses that can be applied broadly across the Americas deepening our understanding of colonialism and community Contributors Julianne Bernard James F Brooks John Dietler Stella D Oro John G Douglass John Ellison Glenn Farris Heather Gibson Kathleen L Hull Linda Hylkema John R Johnson Kent G Lightfoot Lee M Panich Sarah Peelo Seetha N Reddy David W Robinson Tsim D Schneider Christina Spellman Benjamin Vargas     Letters Written from the Banks of the Ohio Claude-François de Lezay-Marnésia, 2016-12-13 First published in French in 1792 Letters Written from the Banks of the Ohio tells the fascinating story of French aristocrat Claude François de Lezay Marnésia and the utopia he attempted to create in what is now Ohio Looking to build a perfect society based on what France might have become without the Revolution Lezay Marnésia bought more than twenty thousand acres of land along the banks of the Ohio River from the Scioto Company which promised French aristocrats a fertile conflict free refuge But hostilities between the U S Army and the Native American tribes who still lived on the land prevented the marquis from taking possession Ruined and on the verge of madness Lezay Marnésia returned to France just as the Revolution was taking a more radical turn He barely escaped the guillotine before dying a few years later in poverty and desperation This edition of the Letters introduced and edited by Benjamin Hoffmann and superbly translated by Alan J Singerman presents the work for the first time since the beginning of the nineteenth century and the first time ever in English The volume features a rich collection of supplementary documents including texts by Lezay Marnésia's son Albert de Lezay Marnésia and the American novelist Hugh Henry Brackenridge This fresh perspective on the young United States as it was represented in French literature casts new light on a captivating and tumultuous period in the history of two nations     Cold War Museology Jessica Douthwaite, Holger Nehring, Samuel J.M.M. Alberti, 2024-11-27 Cold War Museology is the first volume to bring together interdisciplinary and international contributions from leading practitioners and academics specialising in Cold War museology Bringing the most recent historiography of the Cold War into conversation with museological theory and practice chapters within the volume analyse the current condition of Cold War museology By unpicking some of the unique challenges facing museum specialists dealing with the Cold War this book takes a lead in developing the collection display and interpretation of this history The chapters question what makes a Cold War object address the complexity of Cold War time face up to questions of Cold War race gender and imperialism and reveal how to materialise the Cold War imaginary in museums Most importantly perhaps the volume demonstrates that a consideration of the interconnecting forces of global twentieth century history enables experts to add important complexity and nuance to the narratives with which they work and improve visitor understandings through innovative interpretations Cold War Museology will encourage readers towards a more nuanced holistic and inclusive approach to Cold War materiality in museums It will be of great interest to academics museum professionals and students engaged in the study of museums heritage and the Cold War as well as those with an interest in archaeology media culture and memory     Missionary Interests David Golding, Christopher Cannon Jones, 2024-04-15 In Missionary Interests David Golding and Christopher

Cannon Jones bring together works about Protestant and Mormon missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries charting new directions for the historical study of these zealous evangelists for their faith Despite their sectarian differences both groups of missionaries shared notions of dividing the world categorically along the lines of race status and relative exoticism and both employed humanitarian outreach with designs to proselytize American missionaries occupied liminal spaces between proselytizer and proselytized feminine and masculine colonizer and colonized Taken together the chapters in Missionary Interests dismantle easy characterizations of missions and conversion and offer an overlooked juxtaposition between Mormon and Protestant missionary efforts in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Transforming the livestock sector through the Sustainable Development Goals Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018 For decades the livestock debate has focused on how to increase production in a sustainable manner However the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development has shifted the emphasis from fostering sustainable production per se to enhancing the contribution of the sector to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs This publication examines the sector's interaction with each of these Goals as well as the potential synergies trade offs and complex interlinkages This global report is intended to serve as a reference framework that Member States and stakeholders can use as they engage in the transformation process of the livestock sector towards sustainability It calls for an integrated approach towards livestock sustainable development highlights the effective adaptation of the SDGs into specific and targeted national policy action as the major challenge ahead and flags the steps in the implementation road map
